The Christmas Town

Virginia City is rapidly gaining the reputation of being one of Montana's best places to go for a little Christmas spirit. Every weekend this season there are special events going on, from ghost walks to open houses. Last week Debbie Rogers opened her home for a special decoration and folk art sale featuring local artisans. Jim Carpita, site manager for the Montana Heritage Commission in Virginia City, stopped by to sample the wares and see the handiwork of Rikki Scott, tinsmith (center) and Debbie Rogers (right).
