Harkins Is Basketball Coach On AAU African Sport Tour

Mike Harkins, basketball coach at Eastern, was named head coach of a special United States basketball team which was sent to North Africa last fall.

Harkins, who piloted the Yellowjackets to consecutive Montana Collegiate Conference championships in the past three years, took the United States team to Morocco, Algeria, Tunisia, Ethiopia, and Sudan in October and November under the sponsorship of the State Department in conjunction with the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States.

Harkins was assisted by James Reid of the Indiana AAU.

All Star Team

Bill Drumm, Eastern's record-smashing center for the past three years was named one of the six American athletes for the tour. Other team members included John Arrillage, Pacific AAU, Eric Lee, Rocky Mountain AAU; and Allen Schlegelmilch, Lynn Mautz and Thomas Bowman, all of Indiana AAU.

The purpose of the basketball tour to North Africa was to encourage mutual friendship and understanding.

Harkins who came to Eastern in 1960 was voted Montana Collegiate Conference and District 5 NAIA Coach of the Year in 1963. He captained the University of Akron basketball team for two years and received honorable All-American mention.

Harkins Writes

He is the author of over a dozen articles in nationally distributed professional magazines on basketball tactics.

points for a single game (42), and total rebounds (1050).

During his career at Eastern, Drumm, scored over 1,000 points.

He was selected the most valuable basketball player at Eastern in 1962 and earned All-MCC honors all three years.

Drama, Music Groups Touring

Thirty-five Eastern Montana College students are participants in a spring tour to carry a program of drama and music to high schools in Montana.

Frederick K. Miller, drama director, and C. Paul Thompson, music director, are escorting the students to Forsyth, Miles City, Wibaux, Sidney, Plentywood, Scobey, Wolf Point and Glasgow.

The fourteen drama students are presenting a skit, "The Prize Play," by Mary Chase.

The skit revolves around a hilarious version of a sophisticated adult mystery play as seen through the eyes of a child—complete with a rich hero, a slinky heroine, gangsters and numerous robbers.

Eastern's choral group, the Madrigals, are presenting a selection of arrangements including folk tunes, spirituals, show tunes, and classical.

Faith Peery and Francis Moses are singing a duet, "Tonight," and solos are being sung by Miss Peery, Moses, and Skip Mitzman.

Eastern's male section will do a special number arranged by Thompson, "Big Sky Country."

Drama History Highlights Noted

One of the latest projects of the Eastern Montana College Drama Department is the "Decade of Drama" series. It is a series designed to present, in chronological order, highlights of dramatic historical periods.

Under this program Eastern has produced the Greek classic, "Antigone;" the medieval play, "Everyman;" The Elizabethan favorite, "Volpone;" and this spring, Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew."

The department also presents one major production each quarter.

HOOP, GRID TEAMS WIN TOP HONORS

The Eastern Montana College Football Team won second place for 1963 in the Montana Collegiate Conference. They won three games and lost two.

For the second year in a row, the Yellowjacket Basketball Team won the MCC championship with an undefeated record of 10 wins, and an over-all season of 17 wins and 9 losses.

The Yellowjackets were also NAIA District 5 champions, and lost to the 1964 National NAIA champs 77-70 in the Kansas City tournament in March.

YOU'LL GO

You'll go, but you have left a sign.

A symbol of pride and pain.

You'll go, to meet the Master's Design,

But your mark will still remain.

You've tried, and you have brought us fame.

You've labored with might and main.

You've tried, and added to Eastern's flame,

And your mark will still remain.

Excitement Up As Sportsmen Enter Door

The new Eastern Montana College Physical Education Building, with a seating capacity of 4,000 is rarely quiet or empty.

Over 130,000 persons pass through the doors annually as participants and spectators, and the physical education program is as nearly complete as can be found.

In the past six years EMC's Yellowjackets have either been champions or runners-up in Montana Collegiate Conference football. They have been MCC champs in basketball for three consecutive years, and have been NAIA District Five Champions the last two years, thus earning a berth at the National NAIA Tournament in Kansas City.

New Sports

This year Eastern entered into swimming and gymnastic intercollegiate competition for the first time.

The Athletics Department also sponsors almost every intramural sport imaginable.

To name just a few, there are about 180 students in basketball, 90 in touch-football, 30 in handball, 30 in badminton, 90 in volleyball, 30 in swimming, 20 in gymnastics, 40 in weight-lifting and 20 in wrestling.

Intramurals Listed

Other intramurals include softball, baseball, track, tennis, tumbling, soccer, dancing, golf, trampoline, archery, skiing and bowling—and the list can go on and on.

The Health and Physical Education department not only directs its program to education and fun, but to individual physical fitness.

Nine Intercollegiate Knights of Eastern Montana College attended a regional meeting in Idaho this year.

During last Fall Quarter, 274 grants and scholarships were awarded at Eastern Montana College.
