ART WORK DISPLAY

Art Exhibit on Mezzanine Floor Tonight

The students of the Art Department of EASTERN have a display of their work on the Mezzanine Floor of the Main Building. The theme of the exhibit is a display of work from the easels of the various art students.

In the exhibit may be seen work in Media and Techniques classes that are studying methods of reproduction and commercial illustration. Note a group of pure water colors, the designs and the use of magazine cut-outs.

Students who have contributed to the exhibit are: Anita Smith, Betty Sue Mallowney, Marrinell Randolph, Dolores Keller, Virginia Geiken, Bill Penner, Don Hutchins, Milton Myers, Bob Strecker and Vernon Allwin.

The work of the exhibit was mounted by the students under the supervision of the Art Instructor, Mr. Earl R. Lucas.

THE EMCOE STAFF was photographed for the Annual on Thursday, March 3, by Annual Photographer, Hugh Bristor.

FRESH FIELDS A SMASH HIT

Invitational Preview a Great Success

"It's terrific!! A wonderful play!" These are just a few of the many comments heard about FRESH FIELDS, the Winter Quarter production of Katoya.

EASTERN should really be proud to have a dramatics department capable of turning out such a fine product. The players portrayed their roles well.

A vote of thanks should go to the all-important production staff that did such an admirable job on the set and costumes. These people, though unseen by the audience, contributed immeasurably to the success of the.. play.

Last, but by no means least, we come to the director of FRESH FIELDS, Mr. Ray Harshfield, Director of Speech Arts, at EASTERN, who is to be congratulated on the fine showing of his department. EMCOE wishes to voice the sentiments of everyone who saw the play--Congratulations to Katoya.

At the Invitational Preview the receiving line was composed of Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Aikins, Miss Mae Cloninger, Mrs. Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Harshfield. Ushers were: Dorothy Cohn, receptionist, Dolores Klein, EASTERN'S Sweetheart, Stella Clark, Shirley Baker, Dorothy Erickson, Catherine Freeberg.

Music during intermission was played by: Maureen Demars, Lois Kaltenbach, Charlotte Romee, Doris Kaser.
