'Jacket Halfback Injured During Rout of Carroll

Ray Shaffer, Eastern halfback, suffered a knee injury during Saturday's game with Carroll College which may sideline him for about two weeks, Oscar Bjorgum revealed Monday.

Bjorgum, Eastern's head trainer, indicated that Ray's injury is to the ligaments of the left knee, and though it may slow him down awhile, it will not prove permanent.

Other Jackets hurt during Saturday's fracas were quarterback John Fleck, who will be out a week with a knee injury, and John Navasio, halfback, with a minor hip injury. Navasio will probably be ready for the game with Mines, Bjorgum concluded.

Yellowjackets Travel to Butte Mines; Hope to Dig Out Another Victory

Ken Karr's Yellowjackets, fresh from a 23-7 victory over Carroll College, will take to the road this weekend when the 33 man squad moves into the Copper City tomorrow to face the Butte School of Mines.

Though this will be the Yellowjackets' third go of the season, the Butte eleven will be making its initial start for the year. Last year's encounter between these two elevens proved to be a runaway for Eastern, 37-0, but Karr does not expect Butte to roll over and play dead this year, despite Eastern's "big" victory over Carroll. Karr said, "After Saturday's game (Carroll College) everyone will be pointing for us, and we feel that we can look no farther ahead than the next opponent."

Throughout drills this past week, Eastern's coaches have stressed offensive line attack, and pass defense. The Jackets looked strong in their weekly scrimmages, and are up for this game.
