Newman Club Meets

Catholic students from E.M.C.O.E., Rocky Mountain, St. Vincent's School of Nursing, and Billings Business College are invited to the Newman Club meeting this Monday, Jan. 19, at 7:30, in the large conference room of the Student Union, Frank Hayes, president, announced last Monday. Father Hruska is the club's chaplain and Mr. William T. Barry is the Club's adviser.

U.C.C.F. Sets Meeting

United Christian Campus Fellowship provides students with the opportunity to integrate newly-learned concepts and knowledge with religious and moral convictions through talks and discussions. This Sunday's weekly meeting in the Student Union at 6:30 p. m. will be the group's business meeting. Old, new, and prospective members are urged to attend, Mr. W. D. Williams announced last Thursday.

"Lost Horizon" Jan. 21

The film version of James Hilton's best-selling novel, Lost Horizon, will be shown Jan. 21 Wednesday, at 7:15 p. m. in the Student Union Lounge. This novel and the subsequent film version first introduced the term "Shangri-la" into the American idiom.

Plays Planned

The Katoyans' major winter production, The Two Mrs. Carrolls, a three-act melodrama by Martin Vale, has been scheduled for the nights of Mar. 12, 13, and 14. Mr. Sturdy, faculty director, held tryouts Mon., Jan. 12, in the Green Room, backstage of the Gym.

Neal Lininger, Larry Anderson, and Dick Westwell of the Katoya players are still casting for their respective one-act plays by A. A. Milne, Anton Chekhov, and Tennessee Williams. Production is slated for sometime in February.

Eastern Highlights To Run Half Hour

"Eastern Highlights," the weekly topical review taped, recorded and presented by students in radio and TV at Eastern, has proved so successful that radio time has been extended to a full half-hour, according to A. Kent Marler, director of radio and TV.

The weekly radio show will run from 8:30-9:00 p.m. each Wednesday evening, Marler told EMCOE. He said that hopes run high for the opening of Eastern's new training facilities and recording studio later in the quarter. The studio will be housed in Ad. 208 and is in the process of completion. Though the rest of the room will be adaptive to TV when equipment becomes available,

Kravisin's Quotes

The Daily Universe, Brigham Young University, "Who said he won't change a grade. I got him to raise this paper from a "zero" to an "F."

The Angler, Rosebud, Mont. "It's absurd for this man to charge us ten dollars for towing us three miles." "That's all right. He's earning it—I have my brakes on."

At Dawson Jr. College, "There are three kinds of girls: The beautiful, the intelligent, and the majority."

The Shovel, Colestrip, Mont. "Do not take life too seriously, You will never get out of it alive." and "It was a truly human tombstone which bore the inscription; 'I expected this, but not yet'."

it will be used mainly for TV theory now, Marler concluded.
