

Wagner Named Queen At Sweetheart Formal

Eastern's annual Sweetheart Ball, with approximately 500 students and faculty members attending, was highlighted by the announcement of Glenda Wagner, Freshman, as Eastern's 1959 Sweetheart Queen.

Friday the 13th was a lucky day for Miss Wagner when 152 Eastern men students cast their votes for her and other candidates Elva Thomas, Freshman candidate; Barbara Matelich and Delores Ulstad, Sophomore candidates; Sue Bryngelson, Junior candidate, and Pamela Fellows, Senior candidate.

A huge red and white concave heart served as Queen Glenda's throne as she and her attendants reigned over the dance. Ron Pering was Master of Ceremonies and presented Miss Wagner with an engraved trophy, an engraved heart-shaped locket emblematic of EMC 1959 Sweetheart Queen and a bouquet of roses.

Honored guests presided at the receiving line Saturday night and were introduced by Dick Kauk, President of the Sophomore class, and his date, Ros Johnson. They were Mrs. H. L. Steele and daughter, Mrs. Edwin Burgon; Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Price, Dr. and Mrs. Earl Warne, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bobbitt, and Carol Saunders, Dean of Women.

Eastern Montana College of Education

Vol. 12, No. 19

Billings, Montana

February 20, 1959

Special Bulletin

M. E. Johnson, business manager, revealed that he has received an allotment from the Government of enough money for seven loans covering Spring quarter college expenses.

Johnson said that application blanks are available at the Business Office and that they should be filled out and returned as soon as possible. For more information on the government student loan program see story on page three.

Health Services Offers Influenza Immunization

United States Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney warns that it is probable that the outbreak of influenza sweeping Europe may strike the United States. He stresses mass immunization for groups where absenteeism would cause serious disruption.

Eastern's Health Services will of-

—Continued on Page 4

BAND SETS OUT ON GOODWILL TOUR

Eastern's band sallied forth by chartered bus to Hardin, Sheridan, and Lodge Grass this morning and returns tonight, thus completing the first leg of its goodwill tour. After resting and refurbishing over the week-end the band will tour ten more Wyoming high schools, R. J. Colwell, Director of Bands, said.

Solo groups, including the "flute trio," composed of Carroll Alstad, Freddie Wilson and Sharon Parker; "The Dixie Six Less One," composed of Jan LaValley, Gary Freebury, Eddie Neel, Virginia Williams, Charles McCartney and Bud Ridenour, and the entire 38-member company will participate in the 27-selection program ranging from Dvorak's "New World Symphony, Largo," to Dixie Concerto by John Warrington.

Traveling faculty guests will be Carol Saunders, Dean of Women, and William D. Williams, Director of Admissions. Williams will deliver an introductory commentary at each concert appearance.

Band members making the trip include Benton Barnhart, Arlie Schulz, Loretta Eckhardt, Evelyn Howard, Neal Linninger, Ron Pering, Carroll Alstad and Jim Wrightson, all of Billings; Margot Alex, Warren Frank, Gary E. Freebury, Po Murry and K. Darlene Vesely, all of Laurel; Audrey Sue Hageness, Charles McCartney and Pat Nelson, all of Lewistown; Julie Lesnick and Amelia Madison of Absarokee; Jan LaValley and Judith Udin of Fairfield; Martha Behrent of Clyde Park; Alta Mae Dengel of Grass Range; Linnette Grill of Joliet, and Donna Helzer of Bridger.

Completing the roster are Mary B. LaRowe of Circle, Eddie D. Neel of Worden, Ruth Ohlrich of Plevna, Sharon Parker of Bridger, Bud Ridenour of Columbia Falls, Shirley Skarda of Denton, Virginia Williams

—Continued on Page 3

Eastern's 1959 Sweetheart Ball Queen Glenda Wagner smiles majestically during presentation ceremonies Saturday evening. Assisting were Queen candidates Elva Thomas, Delores Ulstad, Barbara Matelich, Sue Bryngelson and Pamela Fellows.