ALL SCHOOL REUNION

Winifred's population of 169 people was ten times that amount on July 23-24 for the all school reunion.

Daryl Smith, with the help of Judee Heggem, barbecued 250 lbs. of beef for the banquet. Claudia Brooks, Rose Fordor, Margaret Wieber and Isabella Wherley registered the guests from 31 states, Saudi Arabia and England.

The banquet was held at the schoolhouse. The Swim Club served at the banquet. The tables were decorated in the school's colors of red and white. The head table had two arrangements of red and white flowers. Dale Benes baked and decorated the cakes. The cake was served by Dorothy Benes.

Jim Lechner was the master of ceremonies and greeted the guests. The Rev. Bill Liddell gave the invocation.

Honor guests were the graduates of the 1920's and former teachers.

Speeches were given by Lonnie Guill, Walter Udelhoven, T. M. Bergum and Boots Asbjornson. Entertainment was provided by Sweet Adelines of Lewistown.

Awards were given to Ron and Nancy Wilcox of Saudi Arabia for coming the farthest from outside of United States.

Jim Gibbons was given an award for traveling the farthest in United States (New York).

The award for the oldest classmates were given to Edith Harris Sudan, Olga Hallickson Hess and Ralph Crow.

Fannie Ehlert was given an award for having the most children.

They all received gifts provided by Montana Ranch and Beef.

Pastor Bill Liddell closed the festive banquet with the benediction.

There was an outdoor dance held on basketball court with music by Slick Trick of Big Sandy.

The following day a picnic was held at the park for alumni and friends.

This reunion gave the people a chance to get reacquainted with their old classmates and friends. They all enjoyed themselves.
