

THE RIMROCK ECHO

— Eastern Montana Normal School —

VOL. V

BILLINGS, MONT., WED., FEBRUARY 14, 1934

NO. 4

YELLOWJACKETS MAKE TOUR OF THE STATE

Freshmen to Sponsor Valentine Day Luncheon at Noon Today in Gym

NOVEL PROGRAM IS FEATURED AT NOON LUNCHEON

At noon today, under the management of the first year class, there will be an all school luncheon in honor of the birthdays of St. Valentine and a member of our faculty whose name will be disclosed during the program. Information concerning the program has not been released because St. Valentine is out of town and the faculty member seems a little sensitive about his age. No doubt both honored guests will be featured.

Bountiful Eats

A delicious menu has been planned—meat or salmon loaf, baked potatoes, buttered beets, cornbread and honey, apples and bananas, Washington pie, and coffee or chocolate milk.

Committees In Charge

The committee in charge are under the direction of the standing faculty luncheon committee. Student chairmen are: program, Emma Chupp; kitchen, Erret Moyer; serving, Doris Lease; decoration, Olive Lindland; clean-up, Rosaling Richter; knockdown, Wm. F. Becklen, Jr.

Cupid, through the nimble hands of Miss Roberts, will do wonders with the decorations.

Doesn't this sound great? We hope the guests of honor will enjoy the luncheon as much as we shall.

M'MULLEN ATTENDS EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Dr. and Mrs. McMullen motored to Helena Tuesday when Dr. McMullen attended a meeting of the executive council for the Greater University of Montana, held on Thursday. They returned Friday morning. The members of this council are the presidents of the six units of the university. The chairman is H. H. Swain, executive secretary of the State Board of Education.

Provides for Student Aid

The council discussed many problems concerning the university units. They learned that the following grants under the P. W. A. have been authorized: the Students' Union Building at Missoula and residence halls at the School of Mines at Butte, and at the State College at Bozeman.

T. C. Spaulding, state director for relief, described the new activity of the F. E. R. A., which is to help students to remain in any one of the six units or to enter any one of these. The plan is to offer work to

(Continued on Page 6)

Staff Is at Work Making Annual

During the past six weeks the annual staff has been busy with preliminary business. Contracts with the printing and engraving companies have been signed, and a color scheme has been determined. The increase in the cost of material and printing has made strict economy imperative. A cover similar to that of last year's annual will be used.

At the recommendation of Miss Roberts, Sybil Christiani was appointed to succeed Nova Perry as editor. Miss Christiani is a first-year student whose originality has impressed fellow students and faculty members. Elizabeth Patterson was elected secretary of the staff.

Plans for having the pictures taken have been arranged. Practically all of the group pictures are finished and the individual pictures of the seniors are rapidly being completed.

Annual staff representatives from all of the school organizations have been chosen. They are as follows: second year class, Katherine Alt; first year class, Amelia Marienkowski; Sketch Club, Dorothy McDonald; Glee Club, Ardith Palmerlee; Katoya, Marie Borberg.

Faculty Goes Chinese

Speaking of parties the faculty men surely exercised their ingenuity at a dinner Friday, February 2. This party was in the nature of a belated return date for a dinner given by the faculty women two years ago.

Dinner was served at six o'clock on a long table set up in Miss Dewey's room. The chief dish was chow mein and rice. Chow mein is one of Dr. McMullen's favorite dishes, his standing order at Times Square restaurant in New York

Ballet Is Success

Sponsored by the Eastern Montana Normal School, Serge Oukrainsky and his Pavley Dancers gave an entertainment at the Babcock theatre last evening, February 13. Students of the normal school were admitted on their activity tickets. The dancing was exceptional. Students feel that they were very fortunate in being allowed to witness the Pavley Dancers.

Mr. Oukrainsky has for several years been a spectacular feature of the ballet. His real name is Leonid

(Continued on Page 6)

GIRLS CRASH INTO ATHLETICS AT LAST

The girls are about to crash into athletics. On Saturday afternoon, at 2:30 in the gym, Oscar's C division team will meet a girls' team from the Poly.

This is your chance to see a real game. Don't miss it.

The group of players from among whom the team which opposes the Poly will be chosen are: Stella Price, Arline Janke, Lotta Nelson, Doris Corwin, Irene Kuhn, Gladys Ronning, Faye Harrington, June Clark, Marie Hansen, Mary Ellen Olson, Dorothy Lilly, Mary Ann Wright, Evelyn Norskog.

It is rumored that there is to be a double header to make the occasion more thrilling. The girls' team of the Johnston Business College is being urged to meet a second team of the C division.

Watch the bulletin board for announcements. And don't fail to go to the game.

City. The affair was distinctly oriental in spite of Mr. Bjorgum's head gear being more reminiscent of Rudolf Valentino than of a Chinaman.

A PLEA FROM THE ANNUAL STAFF

What does your annual mean to you? Perhaps, at present not much, but in later years you will turn to your annual to relive your good times at E. M. N. S.

An annual is primarily a picture book—pictures of you, of your friends, of your teachers, and of your activities. Above all else, an annual is a cross-section of student life. For this reason the annual staff makes a plea to you, "Give us student life pictures—group pictures and individual pictures, funny pictures and serious pictures."

Since few of us have the rare ability to laugh at ourselves, we often hesitate to hand in personal pictures; but we can all laugh at the other fellow, so why not give the staff pictures of your friends? Take pictures and give them to the annual staff. See how many absurd pictures of your friends you can collect.

The best annual staff in the world could not put out an annual without cooperation from the student body. We do not profess to be even a good annual staff, but we do want your help, for, after all, it is to be YOUR annual.

HAVRE LEADS PANTHERS LUCKY STEVENS SCORES

The E. M. N. S. basketball squad left February 5 for their trip which scheduled games with Butte, Dillon, Helena, and Havre. They were defeated in all the games, but are waiting to put their rivals to route in the return engagements.

Those who went on the trip are: Capt. Ray Stevens, Bob Tyler, and Clyde Carrington, guards; Harvey McCormack, Hilton Utterback, Johnny Marsh, Pat Schaaf, Dulane Fulton, and Clem Owens, forwards; Gun Johnson, center; Leon Nelson, student manager; Coach Oscar Bjorgum.

The trip was made in cars. A distance of 1050 miles was covered in which very little difficulty was encountered.

Havre vs. E. M. N. S.

The fastest and most exciting game of the Yellowjacket tour was played at Havre, February 10, against the Northern Montana College. The lead changed hands a number of times during the game.

The Yellowjackets easily outplayed their opponents in the first half, with a score of 27 to 15. However, the Havre team staged a violent comeback in the second half to run the score up to 30-31, where the lead wavered, but was finally cinched by the baskets of Overcast, Havre guard. The game ended with the score standing 35-31 in favor of Havre.

Stevens led the scoring for the Yellowjackets with a total of 12 points, Owens following with 10 points. Overcast was high-point man for Havre with 12 points.

Northern Montana School—February 17.
Intermountain, Helena—February 23.

Intermountain vs. E. M. N. S.

The game between the Panthers and Yellowjackets, February 8, was very exciting.

The Yellowjackets outplayed their opponents but were unable to find the basket to keep pace with the scoring streak of Brandjord, Intermountain forward, who hooped in 22 points for the Panthers.

The score at the half was 20-13 in favor of Intermountain. The second half found Stevens and Owens doing a large share of the scoring for the Yellowjackets while Bostic and Brandjord starred for the Panthers. The final score was 45-33 in favor of Intermountain.

Intermountain meets the Yellowjackets here February 23. An exciting tussle is promised, as the Yellowjackets are determined to win the rest of their home games.