

Faculty Entertains
March Graduates

Thursday evening, March 8, the faculty gave a turkey dinner at the Commercial Club for the graduating seniors. Miss Meek was Mistress of Ceremonies. Miss Barden opened the program with a piano solo, "Ballade," by DeBussey. At the close of her piano number, Miss Barden was presented with a beautiful bouquet of purple iris and yellow roses from the faculty, with the hope that her new work will bring her much success and happiness.

The graduates were presented in an amusing manner by Mr. Bjorgum. He told of the crimes of the "renegade" students and asked the "vigilante" faculty to judge them. Dr. McMullen, after the evidence had been carefully weighed, announced that the students could "rustle" their sheepskins.

Miss Stevenson sang a solo, "The World Is Mine" by Francisco de Leon. She was accompanied by Miss Nourse, the new teacher of public school music. Then Mary Belle Williams gave the response for the graduates. Dr. McMullen closed the evening by leading the group in some songs.

CLASS HAS INDOOR PICNIC

The blackboard drawing class enjoyed an indoor picnic lunch February 15. Cold weather prevented them from eating outdoors, but did not prevent the class from having a most enjoyable time.

CHURCH HONORS STUDENTS

On the evening of March 6, the Baptist ladies gave a dinner in honor of the newly organized Young People's class. Mr. Dean is leader of this class, which includes young people of college age. Those of the Normal School students who attended were: Pauline Belt, Helen Allen, Blanche Harmon, Jewel Schnebly, Bernice Oosterbeek, Henrietta Lammers, France Holmes and Don Foote.

Those present were: Stevens, Johnson, C. Nelson, L. Nelson, McConnells, Marsh, Fulton, Utterback, Schaff, Tyler, Gallahan, Carrington, Jones, Owens.

Mr. and Mrs. Bjorgum have entertained the basketball squad at the close of the season for several years.

News Notes of the Faculty

Schunk

Mr. Schunk has been much in demand as a speaker before groups of youngsters of junior high school age.

He has demonstrated the making of "spoor casts" before the Boy Scouts on February 25. Mr. Schunk used boys in the groups as victims and stirred up a lively interest in the making of casts. The "victims" received the finished casts as reward for submitting themselves as models.

Mr. Schunk also gave a talk on rocks of this vicinity on Monday night, February 25, before the Boy Scout group. On March 7, he addressed the Jefferson Junior High School Amateur Collectors Club on the same subject.

McMullen

Monday, February 26, Dr. McMullen addressed the Laurel Commercial Club at a dinner at the Masonic Temple. Dr. McMullen's topic, "Robinson Crusoe," was selected to illustrate the opposite extremes of social environment. Robinson Crusoe had none; we have too much. He also emphasized the fact that our major problems consist in making adjustments to our social environment.

McMullen

Dr. McMullen addressed the joint meeting of the P. T. A. of the Allendale and Elder Grove Schools on Friday, February 16. The event was to celebrate the anniversary of the organization of the P. T. A. in the schools. The annual meeting is held jointly and alternately; this year it was held at Elder Grove.

Foote

The report of the E. M. N. S. placement bureau regarding placements during 1932-33 are very encouraging to student teachers. Of the 152 graduates of the four quarters of 1932-33, 130 are now teaching. One teacher resigned her position, three entered other occupations, ten are married, and only four want schools. Of these four last mentioned three have been offered schools but have refused them. Only two failed to report at all.

Foote

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Foote and Don motored to Denton over the weekend of February 17-18, to see Leon and Marjorie Foote, both of whom are teaching there. Miss Edna Cole, who accompanied them, visited her parents and friends in Denton.

Mr. Hawkes is quite in demand as a speaker on current events.

Speaking of laws, we believe there should be one limiting a 15-minute after dinner speaker to 30 minutes.

Meek

Miss Mary J. Meek, who is state president of the American Association of University Women, addressed the Dillon branch of the A. A. U. W. at the Episcopal church in Dillon, Friday, February 23. Saturday at luncheon Miss Meek met with a group of women at Anaconda where a new branch of the A. A. U. W. is being organized. Saturday evening she met in conference with the executive board of the Butte branch of the A. A. U. W., returning to Billings Sunday. Miss Stevenson, Dean of Women at E. M. N. S., accompanied Miss Meek, making the trip in her new Plymouth.

Hawkes

Mr. Hawkes addressed the Business and Professional Women's Club at their bi-weekly meeting, Friday evening, February 19, in the "Hunter's Room" at the Commercial Club. He talked about the N. R. A., using as his subject, "The New Deal and Its Sources." He gave a clear-cut analysis of the effect upon the "New Deal" of socialism as practiced in Sweden, communism in Russia, fascism in Italy, and the elements of American history that preceded the New Deal.

Moe

Mr. M. P. Moe, treasurer of the Montana Education Association, spoke to the members of our local M. E. A., at four o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, February 21. Mr. Moe explained the tentative five year program which the M. E. A. is sponsoring for the benefit of Montana educational units.

Foote

After making a survey of 21 counties in Montana, Mr. Foote reports that 19 per cent of the elementary teachers who were teaching in 1932-33 abandoned teaching during 1933-34. In Roosevelt County, 28 of the 94 elementary teachers dropped out, and in Judith Basin 20 out of 61 dropped out.

Mr. Foote states that these teachers have dropped out of teaching for various reasons, chiefly because of marriage, of going to school, of changing occupations, of death, or of failure to get a school.

Dean

Mr. Dean addressed the Hawthorne school P. T. A. Thursday evening, February 15. His subject was "The Use of Standardized Tests in Elementary Schools."

Dean

Mr. Dean addressed the Taft-Garfield unit of the P. T. A. Tuesday, March 13, at 4:15 p. m., at the Taft School. His subject was, "When is a Child Ready for School?"

Ten Commandments
For Pious Students

1. Covet not thy neighbor's test paper; the tests have all been changed anyway.
2. Conduct thyself decorously so that thy days in this institution may be many.
3. Thou shalt not squeal.
4. Heed thy instructors lest they smite thee with an F.
5. Better that thou had never been born than indulge in trite phrases and run on sentences.
6. Do as thou art told lest thou be bawled out.
7. Gossip not and save thyself much grief.
8. Thou shalt laugh with thy instructors, not at them.
9. Keep thy eyes on thine own test paper lest the writing on thy neighbor's paper lead thee to make false answers.
10. Study diligently lest thou flunk.

Mr. Schunk: I do, as soon as I find out which half she wants.

When we ask a friend for his candid opinion, what we really want is his candied opinion.

Beans: Because it is a Plymouth, and she hopes to get more Miles from it than Standish.

HINES DEFIES HOODOO

Dr. Hines appears in the best of health, despite the fact that he posted on the wall of his class room, a chain letter, one of those letters in which one is urged to copy the contents and mail to five persons within 24 hours.

The recipient is expressly warned not to break the chain upon pain of losing his possessions or experiencing bodily injury. Dr. Hines, wishing to explode this choice bit of "bunk" posted this letter on the wall of his class room in order to demonstrate that nothing whatever would happen because of it.
