This program has been worked out according to the months of the year to illustrate the "Extracts from Johnny's Diary."

'34 Annual Is Issued Teachers Are Actors

The 1934 Rimrock Annual came out on the 31st of May. The staff is rather pleased by the way the whole affair wound up, for at the beginning of the year financial barriers loomed high. The annual is financed from the

PROM TO BE GALA AFFAIR

The annual Junior Prom given by the first year class in honor of the graduates of June is to take place tonight at the Coliseum. The grand march, which will begin promptly at nine o'clock, will be led by the senior president, Orton Serrine and his partner, Helen Balock. The second couple will be the freshman class president, Hilton Utterback and his partner, Helen Murphy.

The Coliseum band will play for the dancing. The arrangements have been under the direction of Glen Livingston, who is responsible for refreshments; Jean Wilkins, responsible for programs, and Mary Oswald, flowers. Mr. Dean, sponsor for the class, has been advising the student committees, and when interviewed, he stated that this will be a gala occasion. Everyone is free to bring his guest. Student activity tickets must be presented at the door.

The annual spring play will be staged Thursday evening, June 7, in the High School auditorium. The play to be presented is "Dear Brutus," by J. M. Barrie; the theme of the play is, "What would you do if you had a second chance?"

The plot is based on the English superstition that on Midsummer night, Puck's wood appears, and those who go out that night get another chance at life, but seldom return. As the play progresses we see the
