

THE AGE-SENTINEL.

Vol. 24

BOULDER, MONTANA, THURSDAY JUNE 3, 1909.

No. 43

Boulder Mercantile Co.

"Quality"

Spring Hats

You can pick your Spring hat, derby and the soft hats in all the newest shapes and shades.

Shirts

All the latest styles, the Monarch make, none better.

Shoes

For men, women and children, the latest in Oxfords, in Oxblood, Tan and Patent Leather. The most complete store in Jefferson county to select from.

"Perfect" Fireless Cookers

We have just received the "Perfect Fireless Cooker. Call and examine them and be convinced that your cooking can be done at your convenience. You will not then be a slave to the dinner hour. The "Perfect" Fireless Cooker is extremely durable and its first cost will soon be deducted from your fuel bill.

"Special." Welcome Gold Coin Range for $35.00

Groceries

Our stock of Groceries is complete. Our prices are right and we want your trade.

Boulder Mercantile Co.

The Boulder Exchange.

BENJ. WAHLE, Proprietor.

The Finest Liquors,
Imported Cigars,
Wines for the Home.

Agent For Centennial Beer.

.. HALFORD & HANCHILD ..

Wines, Liquors and Cigars
Anheuser-Busch Beer on Draft
Fehrs, Budweiser, Butte and Basin
Beer in Bottles.

BOULDER MONTANA

...Post Cards and Novelties...

Confectionery, Stationery
Cigars and Tobaccos

Papers, Magazines, etc.

Postoffice
Candy Store

...Mrs. F. M. Johnson

... Boulder Livery and Feed Stable ...

Barteau & Tindall, Props.

Bus to and from all Trains. City Transfer Line. Everything First Class in the Livery Business. Passengers and Freight taken to surrounding towns and Camps. Horses boarded by the Week or month at Reasonable Rates.

Not of Our Strips.

We are informed of differences now being aired in court wherein some of the best people are involved. We decline to wash the dirty linen of respectability, if there's washing to be done, let them do it, or otherwise, let them settle their own differences without the interference of any newspaper. Because we dig and delve into things political for the people's welfare, we decline positively and most emphatically to sip slander and revel in the differences of fine people who ought to know better than court publicity.

No, we'll have none of it.

Boulder's Luck

James A. Murray is the most progress man with sinews of upbuilding that the state can boast. Jim Murray never permits his left hand to realize the doings of the right. Common to all appearances, but possessing a keen conception for opportunities he seldom misjudges his man. Jim is an empire builder and when he builds, he builds well. When a friend, he is a friend from the feet up, stalwart and as immovable as time and as lasting as ages. Few men live at this day possessing his rare qualities and general sociability. The wealth he scatters fills many a household with joy and cupboards for more than another day. Few know his many charities but the world rolls on. Boulder should feel elated at Mr. Murray's investing nearly at its door.

Go to the Poor Farm.

To the viciously inclined to loll at the public crib and roll in the arms of county funds, let them cast off the livery of apparent greed and lay about him the garb of poverty. Instead of fattening at a feast of plenty, recreating in the yards of garished verdure bespangled with exquisite splendor, make application to the proper authorities, on a pauper's oath to seek admittance into the poor farm and partake of its hospitality and its viands.

If one, bound to live on county funds, lives in the proper style and allow the interest on $126,000 to go to fatten the poor—d—nd be he who gluttonously absorb the funds for the support of the pauper poor to loan the money back to the people who created it for from 12 per cent to as much as they can get. Oh, the old trail blazers would linger longer perhaps were this money, at present being given away, expended for them so as to make the awakening of bliss beyond the tomb a pleasing exit from things earthly to that eternal.

A 12 per cent shylock would belie the garb of a pauper were he to get into the poor farm.

Hits 'Em Awful Hard.

Editor James Brown
Boulder Age-Sentinel.

I have read with interest the several articles in your paper in relation to the stand you have taken in regard to the county funds, etc. While I do not agree with you about loaning the money to the taxpayers as it is not practical, I do think there is a way that the taxpayers could be benefited. First: Why has not the legislature passed a law compelling the banks to pay interest on funds deposited with them. Every dollar that the banks pay as interest into the county treasurer, the taxpayers have that much less to run the county government. If every school district should receive interest on funds that lie idle in the bank for months at a time, you would be able to reduce your school taxes just that much. Second: Why are we compelled to pay our taxes annually? If we could pay them semi-annually, we could have the use of the money six months instead of the banks getting rich out of the money for which we had to work hard. Other states have laws to make banks pay interest, also a law whereby taxes are paid semi-annually. Why not in Montana? At the next election let the taxpayers nominate and elect such men who will work for such laws.

Sometimes when I cannot pay my taxes, I go to a bank to borrow the money. They charge me the outrageous interest of 12 per cent. I take it to the county treasurer and he deposits it the same day in the bank I borrowed from, so that I am paying 12 per cent on money that never leaves the bank. No wonder that Boulder bank is making a profit of 45 to 50 per cent per annum. If a bank charges a merchant 10 or 12 per cent, which he cannot afford to pay unless he raises the price on goods, instead of being a benefit to the community, he makes everyone who buys goods pay the toll.

One of the many citizens that stand by you in this good work.

TAXPAYER.

We have never betrayed the serenity of anyone unless for a just cause or an honest purpose. We want to, if we can, snatch from the gulluping greed of the usurper the public funds and apply it to purposes other than that of usury. Splendor of social functions in realms of estey, delightfully enjoyed by the banker and money monger is a prostitution of an empire's financial stability.

Editor Trescott was in Corbin Sunday.

Joe Roberts, of Butte, was in the city the first of the week.

For all kinds of Fishing Tackle go to the Boulder Merc Co.

When you see it in the Age-Sentinel it is news. Subscribe.

The Shumacher Market, East Park, Butte, Mont., for meats.

Geo. Hanchild now occupies apartments in the Concacon residence.

The people of this county know the Interurban will surely be built.

Hon. E. D. Weed, of Helena, was in Boulder looking after legal business.

Ex-treasurer Murphy went to East Helena last week to appraise property. He done it.

Should you visit Boulder, put up at the Hungate Hotel. Ask for it, rates less and service the best.

A. V. Corey, mining engineer, one of the best in Butte, was here looking for a fluxing property.

Mayo, Sachs & Co., stock-brokers, Butte, Mont. Prompt service in the buying and selling of all kinds of securities.

Mike Goldberg has secured the services of an experienced shoemaker and first-class work will be turned out at short notice.

Hon. Ed Ryan was in town again Monday. Ed is a splendid type of the real typical democrat. He is a democrat. A loyal and staunch advocate of those doctrines.

We are pleased to note that Miss Kathryn Winn is in the lead in the Standard's contest.

The Hungate Hotel, terms reasonable and the best place in town to get the best meal. Inquire for Hungates, dont forget it.

Billy Tindall has sold his interest in the livery business to Harry McCullough, the firm now reads Baskier & McCullough. All of them are popular citizens.

Several of the boys came up from the Springs and invested in wearing apparel and other commodities. They were an orderly crowd, but full of pleasure and enjoyment.

The latest styles in men's and boys shirts, hats and caps for spring. Men's cravenet spring overcoats and rain coats, men's union suits and two-piece underwear at the Boulder Merc. Co.

John Birkin was over from Butte Monday, this trip Dr. Leighton enjoyed his hospitality. Mr. Birkin has several good claims in this locality and as he is no piker there will something come out of them.

The sweet little baby, child of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Pritchett, a diadem, strong and healthy, declined from birth, passed from mother, father and relatives to bliss above. That earthly was consigned to the grave Friday. Friends innumerable paying last respects to the dead.

W. H. Nichols, mining promoter, and pretty good fellow, arrived at Corbin in company with an eminent mining engineer from Nevada and Editor Ellsworth, an attache of the Butte Miner. Mr. Nichols owns several good mining properties over there and he is preparing to do something with them.

We want to say a kind word for Sheriff Pat Manning. Were we to go down the records of time to find the equal of a better man, we would exhaust time in oblivious space for there are none such as he. Paddy Manning, from the ranks of the miner to that of public duty, a public servant, but loyally to friend and flag.

A publicity meeting was held in the court house Saturday evening to take steps to assist in compiling data to be used by state officials in a writeup of Montana, her people and industries. Dr. Leighton was selected chairman and Chief Deputy County Attorney, secretary. After a long discussion an executive committee, consisting of five, including the chair, with full power to act, was appointed. The matter is in good hands and will bear out to a creditable conclusion or we miss our guess.

Eddie Sachs got into this town last week, from Butte, unknown to us or the authorities. He came, he saw and his chum, Manager McCormack, of Jim Murray's Boulder Hot Springs, did the rest. The only thing that saved Eddie was unannounced arrival and being accompanied by his magnificent family, they too threw about him the mantle of protection. Eddie remained one whole day splashing and floundering in the plunge. Mac stood on the railing instructing Ed, but gave up the job in disgust. Ed couldn't swim in forty years. Dick Mayo, his partner, continued on to Corbin to attend to mining interests and sidetracked the bunch of splendid fellowship onto Mr. McCormack. Both Mr. and Mrs. Sachs enjoyed the hospitality of their old friends, the manager and his estimable better half.

School closes this week.

Miss Elizabeth Cralle is visiting in Butte.

James Brown's Butte address is 627 Nevada Avenue.

John Hanchild returned the first of the week from Helena.

The Board of County Commissioners will meet in regular session Monday.

Miss Florence Johnson returned home Saturday, after visiting a couple of weeks with friends in Butte.

Boulder Valley contains some of the prettiest homes on earth. It would well be titled "The Garden of the Gods."

We regret that the lack of space does not permit us to publish the program of the closing of the primary room.

Editor Trescott and James Brown will probably start a newspaper at Wickes, H. A. Ackerman as chief mechanic.

No fear should be entertained about legal publications running in the Age-Sentinel, they will be tenderly and legally cared for.

Phil Goodwin, one of the circulators on the Butte Miner, was in town last week. Phil is a splendid fellow and came mighty near making the other candidate for treasurer look sick last election, but he's groomed for another heat, the strongest political steed in Silver Bow County.

Card of Thanks.

We sincerely thank our neighbors and friends for the kindness extended during our late bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Pritchett.
Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Finesty.
Edward J. Finesty.

Notice.

James Brown, secretary-treasurer and manager of this newspaper, is the only duly authorized person to sign proofs of publication or to transact officially any business of importance unless permission so to do is given in writing by the said James Brown.

Bargains at the Graves Mercantile Company.

1 Disc Harrow, with 16 discs and Seeder Attachment, 16-in. discs, $36.50.

1 3/4 Winona Wagon, double box, neckyoke and doubletrees all complete $35.00.

CARDWELL BASIN.

Our Special Correspondent

E. C. Woodward has purchased a span of mules.

James Ahl made a trip to Willow Creek last week.

Bert Critchfield returned home from work in the valley Thursday. He departed Saturday for Harrison to put in a hydraulic ram for B. Parlow.

Riley Cheeseman was doing business in and around Willow Creek the first of the week.

James Seehorn and Solon Parker were visiting in this neighborhood a few days since.

Martin Harrington is busy fencing these days.

The Anaconda Standard's Big Premium Offer.

Send $10.00 for one year's subscription to the daily and Sunday Standard and receive one of the valuable premiums listed below free of charge: U. S. Flag, made of wool bunting, standard size, 3x5 feet.

Stereoscope and 100 views.
The World Photographed.
Commercial Fountain Pen.
Commercial Style Ink Pencil.
Write for booklet giving full description of each.

The Standard, Anaconda, Mont.