LOCAL LAYOUT.

Forty-two degrees below zero Tuesday night.

Sheriff Conrow was here Friday from Livingston on legal business.

Mrs. John E. Rees is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. A. Vickery, at Stillwater.

E. L. Fenton has been appointed postmaster at Laurel, Yellowstone county.

Dr. W. E. Almas returned Friday from a professional trip to the Musselshell country.

It is stated that the Northern Pacific will on March 15, again institute their double train service.

A son was born on Wednesday, January 25, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Fitzpatrick, on the Musselshell.

Mrs. W. R. Stokes returned Sunday morning from a delightful visit to friends and relatives in Minneapolis.

A. M. Harris is registered at the Hotel Helena, at Helena, where he is in the interest of the Sweetgrass county bill.

B. K. Fisher, the Independence merchant, came down from that thriving burg Friday accompanied by his wife and daughter.

Notice the new ad. of Olmstead & Budd Hardware Co. These gentlemen will have a fine stock and should be liberally patronized.

A subject of importance to every member of Big Timber Lodge No. 39, A. O. U. W., will be debated to-night. If you are a member attend.

Frank Bliss and Ed. Runner left here Monday for the Boulder camp where Mr. Bliss has purchased the saloon formerly run by Chris Nutson.

The house of John McLaren was made happy on Friday morning by a 10 pound boy. All are doing well and John talks of putting up another forge in his blacksmith shop for the kid.

C. T. Busha and J. L. Goughnour left here Friday morning for Helena where they will take their seats as members of the House of Lords, or rather the third house of the Montana legislature.

James S. Lee, of Melville, appeared before District Clerk J. A. Bailey at Livingston, last week and made declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States. At the same time he made filing of his homestead entry in Melville township.

Gazette: Wesley Kidd, one of the popular and accommodating conductors on this division of the Northern Pacific railroad after several essays has made a start to Canada, his old home, where he has hopes of making a life long engagement with Mrs. Kidd who is as yet known by some other name. The married folks will arrive at Billings on or before March 15.

Bids are being received by Postmaster Dixon on the mail route from Big Timber to Independence, via McLeod and Hicks, a distance of 57½ miles three times a week. Schedule time 36 hours. The contract is to be from April 1, 1893 to July 1, 1894. As there is to be a large amount of travel into the camp during the coming season it is expected that this will be a profitable line and that there will be a number of bidders.

The Athletic Association is now in good running order in the A. O. U. W. hall. Their outfit was purchased last week by Jos. Humphrey, who went to Bozeman for that purpose and secured a great bargain. The officers of the association are: Frank Bliss president, A. T. Anderson secretary and C. S. Walkridge treasurer. There is a good membership composed of the representative business men of the town and the association bids fair to live long and prosper.

Friday morning, shortly after midnight, Lewistown was visited by another disasterous fire, which started nearly in the same quarter which devasted the town nearly two years ago. The fire occasioned a loss of over $10,000, divided as follows: Stephens & Payliss, drug store and fixtures, $1,500; Carson & Sullivan's saloon, stock and fixtures, over $1,000; Mrs. Anderson's building, $3,000; W. G. Norman; building, jewelry stock, etc., $2,000; Bronson barber shop, $1,500; Bennett block, $500; Shaules & Weaver, saloon fixtures, $500. There was considerable insurance on the property, yet, owing to the fact that rates are high, the buildings and stocks were not insured to the fullest extent.

The thermometer registered about fifteen below during the fire, which also retarded the work of extinguishment. The fire originated in the rear of Carson & Sullivan's saloon.

R. O. Sinclair spent Sunday in Livingston.

W. R. Bramble visited Livingston on Sunday.

At last Montana has experienced a regular eastern blizzard.

Great preparations are being made for the masquerade to be given by the pleasure club on the 24th.

Rev. Bell, of Helena, held a series of interesting lectures at the Congregational church the first of this week.

Should a boycott be declared by Big Timber against Livingston it would not be very healthy or profitable for the citizens or merchants of the last named town. Would it?

Chronicle: It is reported at Helena that Messrs. Hatch and Van Cleve have every hope of getting favorable action on their bill creating Sweetgrass county, with the county seat at Big Timber.

At Livingston the jury in the Northrup murder trial returned a verdict at seven o'clock, Thursday night, of murder in the second degree. When the verdict was read Northrup showed no outward signs of being affected and appeared as unconcerned as any one in the court room. Northrup is about 50 years of age and has resided in Montana fifteen years.

Picket: "Hunter Bill, whose other name is Bill Nichols, has got a new Winchester rifle, and the bear are sure to suffer now," said a man who was examining a new gun in Hanley & Fleming's place Wednesday. "You see," he said, "it is just this way. Bill is just in from an eleven-months' trip in the mountains, and while he knocked over many a bear, elk, sheep and mountain lion he lost almost as many on account of not having a good gun. But with this 55-110 he'll fetch 'em every time and will soon have a carload to ship to the world's fair."

Post: Bankers E. D. Edgerton and Wm. E. Jewell, of Helena, officers of the Crevice Mountain Mining and Milling company, returned Saturday from an inspection of the company's property in the Crevice district. They made arrangements for the resumption of milling operations, which have been suspended for the past two months owing to the ditch conveying water to the mill having become filled with ice. A force of men was put to work the first of the week and as the ditch is cleaned out water will be turned in and it is expected that the mill will be started up at its full capacity of 20 stamps within two weeks.

From the Scientific American it is learned that J. R. Todd of Glenrock, Wyo., has been awarded a patent on a new branding tool. The implement consists of a tube with pointed ends in which slides a plunger, while there is an adjustable guage on the tube. The pointed end of the tube is plunged into the animal, and then a tag previously placed in the tube is driven inward through the tube by the plunger, the tag being left in the flesh after the tube is withdrawn. The tag cannot afterwards be removed without mutilating the animal, being found in the beef only after it is marketed.

Charles Gibson and other members of the Yellowstone Park association were in Washington the past week working in the interest of proposed legislation. To a reporter Mr. Gibson said: "There is a measure pending in congress of more importance than it appears. It is to authorize the association to erect a hotel at the upper geysers. This will complete the 'chain,' as we call it, of hotels, making it possible for tourists to tarry at the most interesting portion of the Park. Now they must push on to the next hotel. The influx of tourists next summer will, in consequence of the World's Fair, be enormous. The association has hotels now that cover over ten acres, and it is the tourists, and not the association, that will be inconvenienced by the failure of congress to pass the bill."

Enterprise: County Attorney Miller received word last week that Sweeney the slayer of Willet at Red Lodge last summer, has became violently insane at his home in Ohio, where he went shortly after his discharge from custody. The particulars are that Sweeney while playing cards in a saloon was suddenly seized with the hallucination that Willet was pursuing him with a determination to kill him. In the belief he became so violent that it was necessary to have him adjudged insane and confined in the Ohio state asylum. It will be remembered that Sweeney shot Willet with a Winchester while the latter was attempting to stab him. This is substantially the evidence brought out in the preliminary examination before Justice Keyser Brown and upon the evidence the court held that Sweeney acted solely in self defense and discharged him.

We extend a cordial greeting to Judge A. P. McAnnelly and bride, former residents of Red Lodge, who have decided to cast their lot in Big Timber and grow up with the town. Judge McAnnelly is an able lawyer and will soon no doubt have a large army of clients.

After many years of suffering Daniel Halvorson died, at his home, on lower Sweetgrass, on Saturday, January 28, 1893. Mr. Halvorson had for many years made Montana his home and had by his patient and honest ways created a large circle of friends who keenly feel his loss. The funeral took place from here on Tuesday, Rev. Pope conducting the services.

John R. Ramsey, who has been confined in the county jail since last August for assault with intent to murder Albert Schmidt, was released last week on $2,000 bail. His bondsman are R. C. Griffeth, John P. Lilly, Henry Frank, J. R. Rathorn, John F. Locke, John F. Work, John Lisk, Fay Ransom, R. M. Ferguson and A. Malino. Ramsey's case will come up again at the next term of court.

Senator Hatch has introduced a bill locating the state normal school at Livingston. The bill provides that the school shall be located within a mile of the corporate limits of Livingston. The board of education is to appoint a committee of five who shall select the site within the limits prescribed by the bill. The state board of education is to prescribe the course of study and have general control of the institution. Males not less than 17 years of age, and females not less than 18 years will be admitted to the junior class, but they must be recommended by their county superintendent and must declare they intend to teach in the public schools of the state. All classes will be admitted to the normal school that are admitted to the public schools.

Gazette: The Billings Roller Mill company has been incorporated with a capital stock of $50,000. Stock is divided into 100 shares of $500 each of which $25,000 has been paid in. The stated object of the company is to manufacture flour and feed and buy and sell real estate. Trustees for the first three months are Christ Yegen, David Fratt, Peter Yegen, H. G. Williams and George A. Griggs. The company have already made arrangements for the purchase of 100,000 pounds of Dakota seed wheat, which will be furnished to the farmers of the Yellowstone valley. Operations toward constructing a plant will be begun in a few weeks, the site not having yet been selected but which will be within the city limits and convenient to the railroad.

An important decision in connection with mining corporations has been made by Judge Hallett, of the United States district court, at Denver. The decision is, in brief, that any stockholder in a mining corporation has a right to enter the mine and make an examination of the property to his satisfaction. The decision was made in connection with the suit of Capt. Thatcher against the Mollie Gibson Mining company, of Aspen. The Mollie Gibson has, during the last twelve months, paid dividends amounting to $1,800,000, and the January dividend has been declared this year, but while this is the case, stockholders have been compelled to blindly await results, as the managers refused to admit any of the stockholders outside of the stockholders of the company, while workman in the mine were sworn to absolute secrecy and a word expressed as to the condition of the mine, one way or the other, meant dismissal from the company's service.

In the Bloom murder trial at Livingston, Tuesday, several witnesses for the defense were examined whose testimony was in substance that Gavin had been the aggressor in the trouble which lead to the shooting. At three o'clock that afternoon the defendent, Bloom, was placed on the stand to testify in his own behalf. Bloom appeared very nervous while giving his version of the affair, but made a good witness, telling his story in a straightforward manner. He testified that Gavin was the aggressor in the trouble that led to the fight in which the latter was shot. He said that Gavin kicked him several times and followed him back into the saloon. He warned Gavin that he would kill him if he did not let him alone.

"He kicked me once after that and I pulled my gun and fired. How many times I don't know, as I was dazed from the effects of the kick. I then got up and started across the street and remained in the stairway of John Lilly's until arrested by sheriff Tembleton."

The defense rested at five o'clock at night and the argument commenced on Wednesday at 10:30.

California's Fruit Crop.

$50,000,000 worth raised this year. Do you want to know where and at what profit the golden orange is raised? Do you want to know how to travel through that district comfortably and cheaply? If you do, address CALIFORNIA BUREAU OF INFORMATION, Room 1138 Guaranty Loan Building, Minneapolis, Minn.

Stillwater Scraps.

[From the Bulletin]

Dentist Nicholson, of Big Timber, came in last night and will remain several days practicing his profession.

Rev. J. Pope, of Big Timber, held divine service in the school house Tuesday night, and was greeted by a large audience.

J. L. Goughnour, of Big Timber, was here Monday on business before Justice Simpson and Constable Calhoun in an attachment suit on the ceded strip.

The hearts of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Vickery were gladdened by the arrival of a daughter at their residence Tuesday. Mother and child are doing well, and Mr. V. is expected to survive.

The Big Timber Pioneer now comes to us printed on book paper, presents a neat appearance typographically, its columns well filled with local and state news, and a goodly share of advertisements, all of which reflects much credit on Bro Hatch and the town of Big Timber.

The 2x1 smile which has illuminated the countenance of Alex Hundley for the past month was fully accounted for on Monday, upon his arrival from Billings with a charming bride. Last week Mr. Hundley hied him away to the county metropolis where he met Mrs. I. D. Nagle, of Rochester N. Y., and at once proceeded to a justice by whom the twain were made one. Mr. H. is a prosperous rancher on the ceded reserve, an old time Montanian, a man of sterling qualities, and that he will make a model husband has been amply evinced on a former occasion. We have not the pleasure of the bride's acquaintance, but from a causual glimpse we feel sure she is held in high esteem by her acquaintances. The Bulletin joins with the many friends of the happy couple in wishing them unlimited connubial bliss.

Who Is It?

Bozeman Chronicle: It is reported from Livingston that one of the ex-county officers of Park went out of office with a large, juicy deficit, which his bondsmen will be called upon to pay. It was to have been expected in this particular instance and no one is greatly surprised.

A Popular Competition.

We desire to call the attention of those who take an interest in Bible study, to the popular competition of The Ladies' Home Magazine, a first class illustrated magazine, published at Petersborough, Ontario. The competition is open to the world, and is free to all who care to compete. All that is necessary is to send answers to the following questions: 1. Which is the longest book in the New Testament? 2. Which is the shortest? 3. The longest verse? 4. The shortest? Mail your answers to the Ladies' Home Magazine, enclosing $1 for six months subscription to this popular and handsomely illustrated magazine. If your answers are correct you are sure of a reward. The following is the prize list: $1,000 in gold, $500 in gold, $250 in gold, $100 in gold, pianos, organs, gold watches, 2,500 elegant tea sets, &c. The public may rely on fair and square dealing, as The Ladies' Home Magazine is an old and reliable concern. Address, THE LADIES HOME MAGAZINE, Petersborough, Ontario.

Beatty's Pianos and Organs.

Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great organ and piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more organs and pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr. Beatty left home a penniless plow boy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up so as to sell so far, nearly 100,000 of Beatty's organs and pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to dishearten him: obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked any ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years he intends to sell 200,000 more of his make, that means a business of $20,000,000 if we average them at $100 each. It is already the largest business of the kind in existence—Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey for Catalogue.

A Remarkable Literary Announcement.

Doubtless the most surprising, and perhaps the most important, literary announcement ever made to American book-buyers is Alden's edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica, for $20.00. It is the genuine, unabridged, cloth-bound work, in large type, including over 20,500 pages and more than 10,000 illustrations, and 200 maps. The full set is now ready for delivery. And even this is not all: If you can't spare $20.00 at one time, by paying only $1.00 extra you may, through the Encyclopedia Britannica Cooperative Club, get the work on installment payments of only five cents a day. Surely, these most extraordinary terms ought to place this greatest of Encyclopedias (a library in itself means something when applied to it) in every home. You can get specimen pages, with full particulars; free, or a 128-page Catalogue of choice books in every department of literature, besides, for a 2-cent stamp, by addressing JOHN B. ALDEN, Publisher, 57 Rose St., New York.

A Handsome Present.

What more delightful remembrance for the holiday time than a present of a year's subscription to an illustrated magazine? A remembrance freshened with each recurring month, as the name of the donor is brought to mind by the reception of the new magazine. Not a very expensive present—$1.00 for a year—but one that will be remembered and appreciated throughout the whole year. Not a useless present as are too many holiday gifts, but of substantial value. By sending the name of your friend to The Arthur's New Home Magazine, Philadelphia, Pa., with $1.00 in cheque, postal, or express order, you can have forwarded on a neat card to such address as you may give, a receipt, giving the name and good wishes of the sender, if you ask to have it done when you order it.

The wonderful popularity attained by Hood's Sarsaparilla Calendar last year, will be repeated by Hood's Household Calendar-Almanac for 1893, just published. A happier combination of calendar and almanac, of beauty and utility, of art and advertising, has seldom been produced. The lovely picture of "The Young Discoverers" lithographed in many delicate colors, will be welcome everywhere, while the pad is attractively printed in colors but with sharp, plain figures. Copies may be obtained from the druggists, or by sending six cents in stamps for one copy, or ten cents for two, to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

We are closing out our line of clothing at cost.
