Today is a legal holiday (Washington's birthday) and the county officials are taking a day's vacation.

Miss Mary Lynch, returned to Shelby last Sunday and resumed her school on the Marias Monday morning.

J. Permau, wife and child, have been under the doctor's care this week, suffering with severe attacks of the grip.

It is reported from Dupuyer that Perry Aspling, who has been confined to his bed with a severe attack of the grip, is slowly recovering.

John A. Clayton has taken possession of the barber shop recently purchased by him from H. C. Kunkel, at Dupuyer. We wish him success.

It is reported from Helena that K. K. Stout, who is now acting as one of the clerks in the state senate has pleuro-pneumonia, but is now rapidly recovering.

A grand school entertainment and basket social will be given at the Dupuyer school house on Saturday evening, March 2. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of a school library. Everybody is invited to be present.

Percy De Wolfe and wife are in town from the Marias this week.

Do not forget the Washington's birthday dance at the town hall tonight. Supper will be served at the Beaupre house.

C. W. Burton, of Helena, is at Dupuyer for the purpose of organizing an A. O. U. W. lodge at that place if a sufficient number can be found to join.

William A. O'Neal and Miss Kate Drinkwine, both residents of the Burton bench, and well and favorably known in Teton county, were united in marriage the first of the week in Great Falls. THE CHRONICLE joins their numerous friends in the usual congratulations.

We are now in the field to take measures for ladies' tailor-made suits. Come in and select one. You will be sure to get a fit at the Chateau Mercantile company's.

W. J. White, inspector of Canadian immigration agencies, states that the American settlers who went into the Canadian Northwest last year took with them cash and effects valued at six million dollars. Between 14,000 and 15,000 settlers from the United States crossed the border.

Mrs. Arthur, of Browning, was last Saturday appointed executrix of the estate of Henry Howard Arthur, deceased, by District Court Clerk Sterling McDonald. The estate consists of money, mortgages and mining stock to the value of $9,000, and Mrs. Arthur's bonds were fixed at $18,000. The legatees named in the will are Mrs. Arthur and a son by a former marriage living in Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Arthur is a sister of J. H. Sherburne, the trader at Browning.

The report coming from England that Mrs. Maybrick has been pardoned is received with much joy by her friends in this country. Mrs. Maybrick was convicted of poisoning her husband in 1889, but the evidence was very circumstantial, and the public mind has always been in much doubt as to her guilt. Several times her American friends have endeavored to have her released, but without success.

W. O. Dexter is getting very favorable reports from his Golden Eagle claim, near Gold Butte, in which he is interested with F. D. Kingsbury. The work upon it is in charge of Jas. and Charles Blevins, and assays show an average of nearly $15 in free milling gold, while samples have run as high as $250. A shaft has been sunk 20 feet and a tunnel driven 130 feet. The mine is the original Gopher claim and has been located for over ten years.—River Press.

Big Price for Sheep.

Helena, Feb. 19.—Milton Bennett, of Custer county, came to Helena with Colin Hunter, of Miles City, the well known stock grower, and while here Mr. Hunter purchased from Willard Bennett 5,525 ewes to be delivered April 1, the price being $18,000, or $5.15 a head. The ewes will be taken from Mr. Bennett's ranch on the Little Missouri. The price paid is believed to be the highest paid in recent years for as large a band of sheep in the state.
