A license to wed has been granted to John Prescott Carberry, the postmaster at Browning, and Margaret Belle Hauk.

James McDevitt, the old time democratic war-horse, from Shelby, is in town "making medicines" with local democratic leaders.

Look over the Collins Mercantile company's advertisement on the first page. They are offering some exceptional bargains.

Notice—Having sold my business at Bynum I desire to notify the public that their accounts with me must be paid immediately.

WALLACE COWELL.

Miss Talma Kufus, of Farmington, has gone to Janesville, Wis., to study elocution and vocal and instrumental music under the best Boston and Leipzig graduates.

Mrs. Burton and her daughter, Mrs. Mitchell, have rented a house in Great Falls, and expect to leave here about the first of next week to make that city their home.

Mrs. H. L. Halliday is in Chicago this week on a pleasure and business trip. She is accompanied by Miss Carrie Collins, who has been visiting friends in the east for several weeks.

Sterling and Mrs. McDonald returned last Saturday from Washington, D. C., where they went to attend the G. A. R. encampment. They report having had a very pleasant time.

For Sale—Laundry, house and two lots in Choteau. Doing a good paying business. A bargain for the right party. Will be sold cheap for cash, or will trade for live stock. Address, C. P. Crain, Choteau.

John Hobbins returned from Great Falls on Wednesday's coach. Mr. Hobbins informs us that he has turned philanthropist and in the future will devote his entire time in acting as banker for handsome widows—grass and otherwise.

Chas. Parker, a well known resident of Choteau, and one of the justices of the peace for this township, has accepted a position as telegraph operator with the Great Northern railway, and for the present will be located at Basin. As soon as the narrow gauge is widened out he expects to be transferred to Steel.

At a meeting of the county commissioners, held yesterday, sitting on a board of health, it was decided that at this time at least it would be unnecessary to quarantine the Black feet reservation. The Agency physician reports that there are but few cases of small pox on the reserve, that the patients are isolated, and the disease is of a mild type.

A marriage license has been issued to Jacob Lauffer and Miss Frances Klester, both of Dupuyer. Mr. Lauffer is well known in the northern portion of the county, where he has been engaged as a stockgrower and rancher for a number of years, and is one of the best citizens of that section. His bride is not so generally known throughout the county, but is highly spoken of by those who know her. We join their friends in wishing them a pleasant journey o'er life's troubled sea.

Mr. Charles Bannatyne, the well-known sheepman of Brighton, and Miss Maggie Stirling of Fort Benton, were united in the bonds of holy wedlock yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon at the Presbyterian manse of this city. Rev. F. R. Ferrand, pastor of the Presbyterian church, performing the ceremony. Mr. Donald Kerr was best man and Miss Mary Peterson bridesmaid. Immediately after the ceremony the newly-wedded pair started on a bridal tour to Utah and the Pacific slope.—Tribune.
