H. L. Shafer, of Great Falls, arrived in the city the first of the week to look after the business of the Shafer Investment Co., in this city, during the temporary absence of his partner, A. E. Shafer, who has gone to the Falls to look after interests.

$5.00 REWARD

Lost the first of the week, a man's gold watch, small size, closed face, initials E. C. engraved on outside, and leather fob, with Royal Arch charm, somewhere in Choteau or on Choteau-Dutton road. A $5 reward will be paid for return. Leave at this office.

He Was Posted.

A distinguished painter employed a small boy from a neighboring slum as a model. He gave the child some tea and asked him if he would like brown bread or white, expecting, as is usual with such youngsters, that he would ask for white. The boy, however, asked for brown bread.

"Hello," exclaimed the painter, astonished; "do you like brown bread?" "Yes," replied the boy; "it's got more nitrogen in it."—Manchester Guardian

Expert Criticism.

"Why do you associate with that rough looking man? He looks like a burglar."

"That is just what he is, my boy. When you write a crime play these days you are supposed to have a real criminal collaborate with you."—Kansas City Journal.

Mercury in Japan.

Japan and China use more mercury than most other countries. In the east this metal is used largely in making vermilion, and in Japan in compounding a secret explosive.

His Real Love.

"You don't think Banks is fond of his wife?" "Not so fond as he is of her husband."—Boston Transcript.

The Poor Poet.

"The poet is born, not made," sayeth the proverb. In other words, it isn't his own fault.

Frankness Itself.

Breezy One—I say, old man, if you'll let me have the loan of $20 I'll be eternally indebted to you.—Puck.

LOCAL NEWS

A son was born to the wife of Andrew Knudson, on Thursday of last week.

W. H. Hewson, of Great Falls, was a business visitor in this city the first of the week.

Attorney Phil I. Cole was a business visitor in Great Falls and Helena the first of the week.

F. A. Oulton and family arrived in this city Tuesday evening from Missoula, and will make their home in the future.

Alfred Harris, of the firm of Harris Bros., merchants at Dupuyer, was in the city the first of the week on his way from Helena to the northern part of the county. He was taken from here to Dupuyer by Mort Hirshberg, in his auto.

E. C. Garrett, the county clerk, returned the first of the week from a short visit at his farm near Valier. Ed is "some farmer," all right, but he has no intention of giving up his present position as county clerk to engage actively in that business for some time to come.

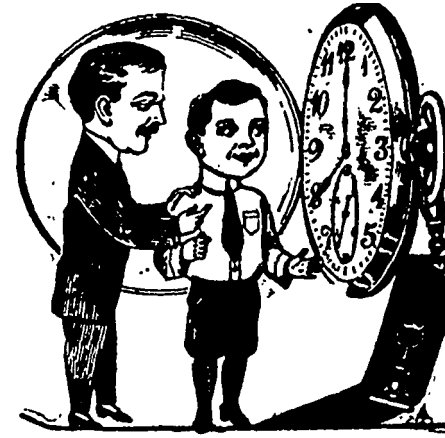

G. W. Yeager, who for the past two years has been making his home at Brigham, Utah, arrived in this city the first of the week and will hereafter reside in this vicinity. Mr. Yeager is now 82 years of age, there being four generations of that family living in this vicinity at the present time, and he is as hale and hearty as many men several years his junior.

Map of Glacier Park townsite, dedicated by Horace J. Clarke and Helen P. Clarke, has been filed in the county clerk's office. The townsite was surveyed by A. G. Baker and comprises 63 acres adjoining the Glacier Park hotel property, and is a part of the Indian allotment claims patented to the dedicators. The town is beautifully located amid splendid scenery, and many of the lots have already been sold to denizens of the eastern hot belt who intend building summer cottages.
