

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS NOTES

Don't miss the T Club dance. The best one of the season.

Miss Hekel: "Who can give me a sentence using yoke?"

Bright student: "Ole pulled a fine yoke."

The contestants for declamatory have picked their pieces and have started working on them.

The present, not pleasant, storm is hindering the boys from training for track.

The high school was given a halt holiday last Friday in order to attend church services.

Miss Schimmelpfeng has just received a set of slides pertaining to Latin which will be shown to both Latin classes this week.

The shorthand and typing contests for this district will be held in Great Falls, Saturday, April 21. The winners from each district will participate in the state contest to be held April 28.

Teton county high school will be represented by Margie Haugen and Esther White in the junior shorthand contest; and by Phyllis Pridham and Ethel Haugen in the senior shorthand contest. At the close of this week the pupils will be engaged for the typing contests.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Harry T. Stong, pastor

Morning worship at 10:30. Sermon by the pastor. Special music by the Choral Society.

Sunday School at 11:30.

Evening service at 7:30. There will be a song service and an illustrated lecture, "The Modern Good Samaritan."

Choral rehearsal Tuesday evening at 7:30.

Boy Scouts, Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Prayer service Thursday at 8 p. m.

All who have attended our church since the rearrangement, cleaning and papering, have expressed their approval and appreciation of the change. We wish to express our thanks to all those who donated their service in helping with the cleaning and the changing of the platform.

Through the cooperation of the "Blues," the "Reds" and the Adult Bible class, and the Sunday school as a whole, with the Ladies Industrial and the Official Board of the church; we hope to be able to pay all bills connected with the repair work.

Now that the Easter season is over let us not forget that the apostles faced their greatest responsibility after the resurrection. True Christianity should be manifest in your life every day in the week, and every week in the year.

Revival services in the church this Thursday and Friday, 8 p. m.

Moving Picture Schedule for "The Stream of Life"

Farmington, April 7.

Ptndroy, Friday, April 13.

Bynum, Saturday, April 14.

Choteau, Sunday, April 15.

FARMINGTON NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. F. Hynes and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. DeRusha and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. Swanbeck and Ruth Andrews were dinner guests at the August Kathman home Easter Sunday.

Rev. Hoagland conducted services at the church Good Friday and Easter Sunday.

A number of the girls Farmington, who have been practicing teaching in Fairfield spent the week end at their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Hanson and family of Missoula, Mr. and Mrs. I. Brekke, and family of Great Falls and Mrs. B. Bruce of Conrad spent Easter Sunday at the O. Lindseth home.

Rev. and Mrs. Hoagland and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Otness enjoyed Easter Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hanson.

Miss Dorothy Lindseth spent the week end at home.

The Misses Vera, Gent, Helen and Olive Seekins entertained a number of their friends at their home last Sunday.

Casper Peterson motored to Kevin Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Dolalie and family spent Easter Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hanson of Bole.

GAYEST BROADWAY IN "BROADWAY ROSE"

With Mae Murray in the stellar role of "Broadway Rose," which comes to the Royal Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, motion picture fans will see the beautiful Metro star in an elaborate production which is said to surpass even "Peacock Alley" and "Fascination."

As in the latter pictures Miss Murray is provided with a role which gives prominence to her ability as a dancer and affords opportunity for striking costumes in great profusion.

A few of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Clark dropped in on them last Saturday evening. Cards were played until midnight, when a nice lunch was served by the visiting ladies. Those who enjoyed the occasion besides Mr. and Mrs. Clark were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Archibald, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCray, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ashworth, Mrs. Edgar and H. B. Swanson.

The city election last Monday passed off very quietly, a total of only 30 votes being cast in the two wards. W. B. Butchart was elected city treasurer. J. E. DeHaas was elected police magistrate and Horace Upman for councilman from the first ward and Dr. H. W. Bateman for the second ward.

Mrs. E. J. Cray entertained the members of her family at Easter dinner Sunday. Spring flowers and Easter decorations were used. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. Sturgeon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daggett, Mr. and Mrs. C. Denzil McDonald, Miss Lucille Sturgeon and Lyall Cray.

AGAWAM NOTES

Jesse Allan of Lewistown was a caller in town Friday.

C. Peterson of Choteau was a business caller here Friday.

Louis Pratt, a representative of the Montanz Life Insurance Company of Helena was in town Friday.

Geo. Wright and family, Mrs. John Wilson, Mrs. Bernard Nelson and daughter, Imogene, were guests at the Hartwick Nelson ranch home Thursday evening.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wuest, who has been ill the past week, is now better.

Vernon Nyberg was among those on business in Great Falls the first of the week.

Lee Good from Sunburst was in town shaking hands with former acquaintances.

Mrs. John Wilson enjoyed a very pleasant evening Tuesday, visiting at the Geo. Wright home.

Miss Magda Wagnild, a high school teacher of Dutton, was a week end guest at the home of her brother, Otto Wagnild.

John Gerich returned to Great Falls Monday to resume his school studies after spending the Easter vacation with his parents.

Several Agawam people attended the dance at Bynum on Saturday evening.

Alf Wagnild of Pendroy was among the out of town callers Monday.

O. F. Schaefer and family spent a pleasant evening at the P. J. Reed home on Easter Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joh Wilson motored to Great Falls Saturday afternoon returning that evening.

Jos. Lindseth was a Brady visitor Saturday and Sunday.

Valentine Kirsch returned Tuesday from Great Falls where he spent several days on business.

Martin Vigen, and Godfrey Torgensen left on a business trip to Great Falls the first of the week.

People we see on the street corners these days are not discussing Europe. They are deciding how to get across the street.

P. J. Reed and family were evening guests at the apartments of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wagnild on Tuesday.

A. M. Rongstad left on a business trip of several days duration in Great Falls Tuesday.

O. F. Schaefer, Agawam merchant, was a business caller in Choteau on Tuesday.

Mrs. F. Ramsey accompanied by Imogene Nelson were among those in Choteau Tuesday.

C. W. Seward, American railway express agent, headquarters in Great Falls, was in town on company business Wednesday.

The home of O. Wagnild was the scene of a family reunion on Easter Sunday. Included in the guest list were Mr. and Mrs. Saterlei of Blackleaf, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wagnild of Agawam, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Monkman and son, Gordon, Jr., of Bynum, Miss Magda Wagnild of Dutton and Alf Wagnild of Pendroy.

John Kramer and son who have been living in Great Falls the past two years arrived here Wednesday to take up farming on their land six miles northeast of Agawam.

Mrs. Bernard Nelson and daughter Imogene, and Mrs. Frank Ramsey left for a few days shopping trip in Great Falls, Wednesday.

Sam Boysley and family of Farmington have moved into the town. He being employed by the Milwaukee as a track laborer.

N. G. Bast, traveling auditor for the Gallatin Valley Milling company, was in town looking after business interests Tuesday.

The California test well has resumed drilling, Wednesday, after several days of fishing for lost tools.

Mrs. C. Nyberg, who has been reported quite ill in the hospital at Conrad is somewhat improved at the present writing.

Everybody was sky gazing Wednesday morning. An airplane passed over the city.

Jimmy Barnes has been "spring cleaning" his store and is looking forward to a rushing business.

Wendal Petri was among the callers in town from his ranch on Wednesday.

Otto Wagnild is taking the yearly assessments of this vicinity for County Assessor Gleason.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

At the regular meeting of the Womans Club Tuesday, the annual election of officers for the ensuing year took place and resulted as follows:

Mrs. J. I. Cain, president.

Mrs. J. W. Hentges, vice president.

Mrs. Frank Oulton, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. W. W. Smith, recording secretary.

Mrs. B. I. Packer, treasurer.

Delegates to the convention at Anaconda:

Mrs. E. J. Hirschberg.

Mrs. B. I. Packer.

Mrs. J. C. Taylor.

Alternates were chosen as follows:

Mrs. Chas. McDonald.

Mrs. E. J. Cray.

Mrs. H. T. Rhoads.

Mrs. C. Hess was hostess to a few of her friends at 500 Friday evening. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Meadows, Mr. and Mrs. C. Ferris, Mr. and Mrs. Dunc McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Horst and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Odenwald.

Mrs. Vandewark was hostess to the members of her class at a supper given at her ranch home Sunday afternoon. The children had to hunt for Easter eggs and also a large freezer of ice cream which was securely hidden. The fortunate young people at this party were Helen Bateman, Ellen Bushman, Rene Salmond, Helen Stone, Nellie Gray, Marguerite Edgar, Bonnyhir Wolfe, Evelyn Willis, Albert Doughty, Robert Haugen, Lee Hirschberg, Richard Jones, Donald Mc Glenn, Gibson Monkman, Jim Morgan, Kenneth Neville, Carl Peters, Stephen Webb, Clarence Stone and Even Thompson.

Miss Eda Gregory was hostess at a delightful dancing party at her home last week. The guests included Misses Helen Gorham, Marguerite McDonald, Phyllis Green, Evelyn Hansen, Norma Doege, Inez Lindseth, Lucille Baker, Beth Cleland, Eleanor Taylor, Margaret Jacobson, Messrs Clarence Lindseth, Wm. Burns, Clarence McNeal, Chas. Rhoads, Edward Dow, Wm. Upman, Lyall Cray, John Dow, James Looney, Arthur Ramsey and Creed Taylor.

Prof. R. F. Williamson was host at a delightful breakfast served at the Glenloyd hotel Easter morning. Easter decorations predominated and the menu consisted of grapefruit, home cured southern ham, eggs, buttermilk biscuits and coffee. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Core, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Phil I. Cole, Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Cray, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Porter, the Misses Reed, Medley, Heckle, Williamson and Mr. Jack Sweat and Prof. R. F. Williamson.

One of the big dances of the season will be the T Club dance at the high school gymnasium, this Friday evening. Everyone should go that enjoys good dancing and good eats.

The Knights of Pythias held their regular social meeting at their hall Thursday evening.

The Ladies Industrial met at the Methodist church parlors Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. John Hall entertained at duplicate whist Thursday evening and bridge whist Friday evening.

Little Kathleen Hannan celebrated her second birthday last Wednesday afternoon. Misses Johanna Hirschberg, Elsie Hirschberg, Gordon Eckford, Anne Eckford, Patty Anne Cain and Paul Baffle helped her to celebrate.

Mrs. G. M. Coffey and little sons returned from Great Falls where they have spent most of the winter.

Mrs. O. Joanis, Mrs. Frank Howard, Mrs. Henry Robison and Mrs. H. T. Rhoads were the entertaining committee at the blue lodge, A. F. & A. M., last Wednesday evening.

ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH (Protestant Episcopal)

Rev. H. E. Bush, Minister

Sunday services:

8:00 a. m. Holy Communion.

11:00 a. m. Divine Worship.

12:00 m. Church School.

Owing to the absence of the minister from the city there will be no services next Sunday, save only the Church School. The School will meet at noon as usual and every student is expected.

Easter having arrived and gone, the summer season is on and the summer schedule obtains. This means there will be no services on Sunday evenings until farther notice.

The Womans Guild will be entertained at the Rectory on Thursday Afternoon, April 12th.

5 pound pall pure lard 95c.

HIRSBERG'S.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Streeter, on Monday, April 2, a son.

Geo. Porter of Porter bench came in Saturday and transacted business with our merchants. He left that afternoon for Great Falls.

Miss Gladys Martine, who is teaching school in the Spring Valley district, came in last Friday to visit with friends and relatives over Easter.

W. H. Gregory left Wednesday morning for Shelby with a dray team and outfit. He will be connected with Harry Adams in the transfer business at that place.

The Long and Cleary Sheep Co. shipped fifteen cars of sheep from Cascade to Pendroy last Saturday.

Russell Thorpe, who represents the Calbraith Cattle Co., moved a large bunch of steers from the S T ranch last Sunday to the Tim Cook ranch west of town, where they will be put on feed.

Ed. Corson left last Sunday afternoon for Dutton where he caught the train for Conrad. Ed has secured employment with the Conrad Merc. Co.

The Lee Brown family moved this week into the Henry Radcliffe house, formerly occupied by E. D. Forrest and family who have moved to their ranch south of town.

Harry Brouillette and family returned last Saturday from Pullman, Washington, where they spent the winter. Mr. Brouillette will reopen the bakery here as soon as some needed repairs can be made.

Leo Stein, who has been employed in the grocery department of the Choteau Mercantile company, left on Monday for Kalispell where he has accepted a position.

Archie Murchie of Dutton drove to Choteau Monday morning, bringing Donald Kerr to be present for the meeting of the county commissioners this week.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NEWS NOTES

Twenty-two of the pupils in Miss Steele's room received monthly certificates, also the following received quarterly certificates: Catharine Biting, Madge Looney, Jessie Moore, Leona Myrick, Virginia Spears, Margaret Stephens, Bruce Andrews, Gerald Archibald, James Clark and Warren Burch.

Those in Miss Dean's second grade were Anne Eckford, Charles Miller, Emma Clark, Erma Young, Helen Cohoe, Lillian Spears, Margaret Morgan, Mary Ellen Bush, Mary Belle Peterson, Maro Butchart, Julius Mozer, Peter Bushman, Virginia Hansen, Villa White William Hess and Norma Tennant.

Erma Young, Norma Tennant, Villa White, Julius Mozer and Peter Bushman also received Three-Month's Perfect Attendance Certificates.

The following in the third grade received Palmer Method Buttons: Gene Haugen, Walter Mozer, Mildred Talvison, Gertrude Andrews, Lucile Martine, Harvey Upman, Opal Moore and Emmett Oulton.

In the 4th grade Ellen Bushman and Nellie Gray received Progress Pins.

The following received Palmer Buttons in the fourth grade: Inez Smith, Robert Haugen, Thomas Dunn, Lee Hirschberg, Gibson Monkman.

The fourth grade received the quarter holiday this month for attendance.

Wanita Price, Marion Webb, Ethel Morgan, Houston Peters, John Peterson, Bill Bateman, Harmon Rhoads, Eunice Walley, Mary Sulgrove, Jack Myers, Jessé Innes, Alex Truchot, Burton Wells and Grace Allum in the sixth grade received attendance certificates.

Mrs. Saylor had some questions asked the seventh grade in geography to see if they were up to requirements.

The girl's and boy's gym classes entertained for a short time at the high school for the Parent-Teachers' meeting Monday evening.

The oats and wheat on the second grade sand table is up four inches.

Mildred Thompson, Lucile Morgan, Ruth Haugen, Clinton Core and Giles Trescott in the eighth grade received three month's certificates.

—Kathryn. Dunn.

Mrs. W. E. Howard entertained at a dinner party at the Womans Club rooms Saturday evening in honor of her niece, Miss Dorothy Moran. Those who attended this party were the Misses Helen Gorham, Eda Gregory, Grace Anderson, Evelyn Hansen, Beth Cleland, Norma Doege, Eleanor Taylor, Phyllis Green, Lucille Baker and the Messrs Clarence McNeal, William Burns, Harold Crane, James Looney, Arthur Ramsey, Lorence Fitzgerald, Lyall Cray, Lyle Malcolm, Clarence Lindseth, Lloyd Green and John Dow.

Statement of Condition of

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF CHOTEAU

at close of business Dec. 29, 1922

RESOURCES	LIABILITIES
Cash in vault and in other banks$174,802.65	Deposits$339,387.88
County warrants, real estate, etc 27,443.45	Undivided profits 6,917.83
Loans and discounts 204,059.61	Capital and surplus 60,000.00
$406,305.71	$406,305.71

MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

Citizens State Bank

CHOTEAU, MONTANA

OUR DIRECTORS:

G. M. Coffey
P. H. Crossen
George F. Miller
Wm. Hodgskiss
James Eckford

We specialize in all departments of Commercial Banking and offer service consistent with safe banking.