The Teton Exchange is now open day and night, Hardy F. England & Co., proprietors.

Clerk of the District Court McDonald is in town this week preparing himself for the duties of his office.

W. K. Flowerree, Teton county's new stock commissioner, was in town last evening from his Sun River ranch.

A. N. Dean and wife, of Dupuyer, have been spending a week at the county seat.

S. L. Potter is in town from Dupuyer this week.

County Commissioner Taylor goes to Benton to-morrow to assist in adjusting the indebtedness between Teton and Choteau counties.

Willis Lintz and Eddie Risley were over from their North Fork domain one day this week, their first visit to the city since last fall.

Silverman & Cohen's new warehouse is rapidly assuming an imposing appearance. It will be the largest building yet put up in Choteau.

Choteau is blessed with two excellent physicians in whose care the people may place their health with the assurance that it will be well taken care of.

County Treasurer Bristol came in from Robare on Monday and is now prepared to qualify and take the oath of office as soon as the commissioners are ready to receive and approve of his papers.

About all the new county officers except Sheriff Hamilton and Commissioners Flint and Clark have been in town this week making the necessary preparations to assume the duties of their several offices.

The Teton County ball last Tuesday evening when the young folks danced out of Choteau county into Teton county, was a most enjoyable affair and well attended. Supper was served by Mine Host Fowler, at the Valley restaurant, and was one of those feasts for which he is becoming famous.

Gibson & Walker will begin the erection of a large business house on the corner of Main and Hamilton Sts. as soon as the weather settles sufficiently to allow the excavation of a basement rock for which is now being placed on the ground. The building will be 25x70 feet and two stories high. It will be a frame structure.

Dr. Drake has remove his office from over the Valley restaurant to a pair of rooms over the Choteau bank, where he is now nicely located, having a private consultation room, away from prying eyes and ears. This change was necessitated by the increased demand for the doctor's services which, of course, will continue to grow as our population increases and the doctor becomes better known.

Judge Traxler, at Sun River, is instituting inquiries as to the whereabouts of Theodore Maus, of Alsace-Lorraine, Germany, who was last heard of at Sun River. Maus' letters were addressed to him at that place in care of Theodore Mumford, who now lives in Great Falls, but he has not seen Maus for some time and has lost all track of him. Any information concerning his whereabouts will be thankfully received by the judge and by Maus' people in Germany.

BORN—On March 2, 1893, to Mr. and Mrs. F. Robinson, a son, the first child born in Teton county. Mrs. Robinson has been sick for some six or eight weeks, coming here from Blackfoot for medical treatment and the fact that she has given birth to a child and that both are doing well is a pleasing announcement.

To-day Professor Bair closes his term of teaching the Choteau school preparatory to assuming the duties of superintendent of schools for Teton county and to which position he was appointed by the legislature. Mr. Bair has been an efficient teacher and is amply qualified to perform the new duties which will devolve upon him. Mrs. Geo. Barron will succeed Prof. Bair for the remainder of the present term.

Robert Lee Manis was up before Judge Dunlap yesterday afternoon for assaulting and seriously wounding with a knife Suel Christian, some days since at one of the Flowerree ranches on Sun river. Late last night after the testimony was all in, the judge discharged Manis, it appearing to His Honor that Christian was the assailant and that Manis did the cutting to prevent himself from getting a severe pounding at the hands of Christian. As to the merits of the case we are not advised, but the fact remains that there was unlawful fighting within the precincts of Teton county and that neither of the participants were punished.

Wm. Bruce returned from a trip to Chinook and the Milk River country on Monday evening last, after a ten days absence. He has a contract for the construction of twelve miles of the North Fork Irrigation canal, just below Chinook. The canal is to be taken out of the North Fork and will irrigate a fine scope of country lying in the Milk River valley adjacent to Chinook. This will supply a long felt want in that section and will make it blossom as the rose. Mr. Bruce expects to begin work as soon as the frost is out of the ground and will have it completed by the 15th of June, though he expects to have it done long before that time. Mr. Bruce returns highly pleased with the prospects, the valley and the people of that section, and predicts that with the storage of water and irrigation of these lands it will be one of the finest agricultural sections of the west.

The Following Letter From Walkerville Where He is New Located.

The following letter was received last Friday evening from Rev. J. H. Little, who for several years paid Choteau regular monthly visits to preach the gospel to the people of this section. As the many friends of Mr. Little in this section will be pleased to hear from him we take the liberty of publishing his kind letter in full:
WALKERVILLE, Mont., Feb 21, 1893.—
S. M. Corson, Esq., Choteau, Mont.

DEAR SIR: It is with a great deal of pleasure that I read THE MONTANIAN every week, and thus keep posted in the affairs of Choteau. Allow me to congratulate my many friends in Choteau and vicinity on the creation of Teton county, which every one at all acquainted with the country must admit to be an act of justice to the people of the western part of what used to be Choteau county.

I read with a great deal of pleasure the account of banquet given in honor of that event, and the long list of subjects and speakers, must have made an enjoyable season to all who were fortunate enough to be present.

There are several things that I would like to congratulate the people of Choteau upon having, but time, nor space will not permit. I do feel interested in the religious welfare of Choteau, a place that I visited as often as my other duties would permit for over five years, and I am glad that you have a minister of the gospel residing among you I hope he will be successful in building a church that will be both an ornament and a blessing to the residents of the new county seat.

What changes have taken place since I first visited Choteau, over seven years ago! Why it seems to me (judging of of course from the reports given in THE MONTANIAN) that you are making wonderful improvements on a place already favored by nature, you are no longer a hundred miles from any where, but have all the appliances right in your midst of as beautiful a county seat as can be found anywhere in beautiful Montana.

The only fault I have to find with my friends of Choteau is, that they have not been as enterprising as they might have been in the past, but I imagine now that they have the county seat, that they will try to build up Choteau, and make it an important town of Northern Montana.

Why, Sir, you have such a variety of interests, and such magnificent natural advantages, that in ten years from now you ought to rank among the manufacturing towns of Montana, grinding your own wheat into flour, and crushing your own oats into meal, and making your own wool into cloth. I know this may seem visionary even to the most enthusiastic friends of your section, but I believe it possible, and if a few of your enterprising capitalists will only make a start in the right direction, they will soon find others come to their support.

I have said enough for this time, some day I may write you again. Kind regards to my many friends in Choteau and vicinity,
Yours truly,
J. H. LITTLE.

"One of the happy weddings of the past week occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lundy, Hunters Creek, Feb. 1st, at two o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Ida, was united to Fred Palmerlee. It was a beautiful affair and many friends had been invited to witness it. The groom was attired in the conventional black suit and the bride was beautiful in cream colored cashmere en train and carried a bouquet of carnation pinks. Chas. Gates and Ella Lundy acted as groomsman and bridesmaid. Rev. P. G. Robertson performed the ceremony, after which all partook of a luscious wedding banquet and joy crowned the feast. The elaborated array of presents embraced the following:"

Here follows a long list of valuable and beautiful presents including a beautiful biography and historical family record in book form, including their marriage certificate. This last was presented by the officiating clergyman, Rev. P. G. Robertson.
