

Americans Advancing Across the Voltorno

Despite strong German defensive action, Allied forces pushed across the Voltorno river in their steady northward march over Italy. Top: American infantry troops tow themselves across the strategic river on a rubber pontoon. Bottom: A group of American soldiers pitch a steel pontoon bridge across the Voltorno while a sentinel guards against snipers.

Allied Conferees

Top: United States Secretary of State Cordell Hull as he arrived in Moscow to confer with Russia's foreign commissar, Vyacheslav Molotov, bottom, and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, on matters pertaining to the war.

Fighting Disease, Japs in Jungles of Burma

Americans, Burmese, Chinese, British, and native Naga coolies are battling side by side against disease and the Japanese in the jungles of Burma. Left: Big Hawk, an expert in microscopic work, instructs Na Shaw, another Burmese nurse, at the Seagrave hospital unit of the U. S. army. Right: Along a rugged north Burman trail, American-trained Chinese soldiers pull a field gun into position. Upper Inset: Corp. Rolf Krog of St. Joseph, Mo., and a Chinese soldier take time out to rest beside a jungle trail. This picture was taken in the Naga hills where the Chinese and American troops fought together against the Japanese.

Rehabilitating Shocked, Orphaned War Waifs

Hundreds of English children whose parents have been killed and whose homes have been destroyed during the war are being nourished back to health and guided in the ways of normal childhood at the Hanover Lodge Nursery in London. Some were so shocked by the noise and destruction of war that they may never recover. Left: One of England's "homeless generation" bravely salutes in her crib. Center: In the garden the children pose for the cameraman. Top right: This modest young man covers his face as he is photographed while being given a bath. The nursery was formerly the home of a wealthy American girl.

Chicago Has a Subway

Mayor Edward J. Kelly of Chicago cuts a ribbon in the central station of his city's new five-mile subway. A few minutes later trains were roaring through the $40,000,000 tubes which are being operated by the elevated lines.

Italian Pin Up Boy

An Italian war prisoner hangs out his laundry "somewhere in America." Prisoners get clothing, good food and are paid for work. Officers are paid according to rank. In American camps prisoners get $3 a month whether they work or not.

Outdoor Doctor's Office in Alaska

Surrounded by primitive totem poles, Lieutenant (jg) R. W. Carr of the U. S. Public Health Service, assigned to the coast guard, conducts an ear examination in a village near Ketchikan, Alaska. Because the coast guard has no medical corps of its own, Public Health Service men assigned to it can be found at its many battle posts.

Fight 50 Jap Planes

During a bombing mission over Hankow, China, these three gunners and their mates fought off 50 Zeros. Left to right: Sergt. Robert Kirk; Sergt. Arthur J. Benko, who downed four Jap planes; and Sergt. William J. Novak, who downed eight.

Hundreds Die Daily in India Famine

A dying Indian family is pictured on the streets of Calcutta where 250 persons perished daily in the worst famine to strike India for decades. This scene was typical of the condition in India as appeals were made for Allied assistance in the form of "mercy ships" bearing food. The famine was reported to have killed 25,000 in Bengal within four months.

Twin Submarines Named Shark and Bream

The twin submarines Shark and Bream were christened at the Electric Boat company, Groton, Conn., in the first double launching in the history of the company. They were sponsored by Mrs. Albert Thomas, wife of Congressman Thomas of Texas, and Mrs. W. G. Chapple, wife of Commander Chapple, navy submarine officer.

Jap Split-Toe Shoes

This split-toe type of shoe, pictured on a dead Jap soldier in the Solomons, is worn by those who, as civilians, were accustomed to open sandals fastened by a strap between the toes.

Family Adopts Orphaned Fawn

When a train killed a doe near Harriman Heights, N. Y., recently, "Bambi," a tiny fawn, was orphaned. The family of young Elwood Lewis adopted her, fed her with a medicine dropper, but did not confine her. "Bambi," pictured above, lives in the woods near Elwood's home. She comes out each morning for breakfast and again after school to romp with Elwood.

1944 Candidate?

Wendell Willkie, GOP presidential nominee in the last election and a current prospect for 1944, is pictured speaking in St. Louis where he suggested stabilized world currency.
