Bulldogs, Beavers Dealt Double Weekend Defeats

Westminster Stops Western, 77-68, 79-63

The potent Parsons of Westminster parlayed strong second half performances to hand Western's Bulldogs a pair of almost identical defeats Friday and Saturday nights at Salt Lake City.

Boasting a veteran lineup and unstoppable 6'7" center Gary Bliss, the Utah five took the Friday opener, 77-68, after trailing by eight points at halftime.

The Bulldogs, who lost star guard Bob Sullivan on fouls early in the second half, were unable to cope with a fullcourt press of the taller, more experienced Parsons in the game's late stages.

A bright spot in the Bulldog loss was the continuing improved play of their young starting five and especially that of Dick Silberman, the sophomore postman who shared scoring honors with Bliss on 21-point outputs. Schmutz added 14 and McGahan 10 for the Western five.

Cold Saturday

Westminster took the Saturday match, 79-63, as Bliss and guard Jim Morris combined for 39 points.

The Parsons held a narrow 35-30 lead at intermission but pulled away when Western hit a cold basket streak midway through the final period.

Bulldog Boss Bill Straugh, summing up the game, said, "It seemed like we played most of the second half trying to get our 50th point. Up til then it was a close, well-played contest."

Silberman was again the Bulldog scoring leader matching his previous night's 21-point effort. Schmutz finished with 15 and big Chuck Johns 11.

The twin victories upped the Parsons' season mark to 3-1 while Western was absorbing its third loss in four outings.

Head West

Western swings west this week for a four-game tour in which they meet three tough Washington aggregations.

First stop will be Seattle where they play Seattle Pacific on Thursday night. The Bulldogs travel to Bellingham for Friday and Saturday games with Western Washington and conclude the trip Monday night when they meet St. Martin's at Olympia.

The local club will then be idle until Friday, Dec. 21, when they host Weber College in the WMC gym.

Mrs. Elfreda Woodside returned home Sunday evening from Billings where she visited friends.

Class A Livingston and AA Butte posted weekend victories over Dillon's B loop Beavers as Coach Max Niels' club continued its rugged pre-conference campaign.

The Rangers of Livingston notched their second win over the BCHS five, 67-41, at Livingston Friday with another display of scorching basket accuracy.

Frederick and Burns led the sharpshooting Rangers with 17 each. Jim Womack hit 15 and Ed Ferris 11 in the losing Beaver cause.

Butte Sharp in Debut

Coach Bob Rae's Purples, making their '62 debut, unleashed a driving, double-post offense to smother the Dillon five, 63-48, at the WMC gym Saturday night.

Both clubs were sharp in the torrid opening quarter. Dillon took a 3-1 lead, fell behind 7-4 and then rallied to a 10-10 tie midway in the stanza.

Butte, behind big Yeo, took control of the board and the game in the second stanza and held a 39-25 halftime margin.

The Beavers exhibited their top scoring drives in the final stanza when they dominated Bulldog reserves, 14-7.

Deshler, Hyppa and Yeo netted 16, 13 and 12 points for the winners while Ed Ferris finished with 14 for the Beavers.

Idaho Clubs Next

Jack Brenner

Frank Hazelbaker

Beaverhead county's representatives in the Montana legislature were honored Sunday at an organization meeting of Republicans held in Billings.

Frank Hazelbaker was elected speaker of the House of Representatives and Jack Brenner was elected minority leader in the Senate where the Democrats will retain control. The legislature will convene Jan. 7, in Helena. Hazelbaker was elected on the second ballot Sunday night at the Republican House caucus.

Until then it was a three-way race among Hazelbaker, Rep. Thomas Haines of Missoula County and 1961 speaker, Clyde Hawks of Big Horn County. Hawks was eliminated on the first ballot and Hazelbaker picked up most of Hawks' votes to win the speakership.

Hawks' nomination was unexpected and it was seconded by Rep. Fred Broeder of Flathead County, who until earlier Sunday evening was a candidate for the speakership. However, Broeder withdrew before the caucus started.

College Issue Decisive

Haines, who will begin his seventh term in the legislature when it convenes, was the first to announce his candidacy for speaker. His defeat for the post was looked upon as a victory for the nine-man, all Republican delegation from Yellowstone County which had opposed Haines in fear he would exert his influence against the ambitions of Eastern Montana College of Education to become a four year liberal arts college.

Haines is from Missoula where Montana State University is located, and where it is feared elevation of Eastern to a higher academic status would detract from the university.

It also was apparent that Broeder, in withdrawing from the speakership race threw his votes to Hazelbaker as opposed to Haines.

Other Officers Named

The Republican House members elected these other officers for the 1963 session: Broeder as speaker pro tem; William Walrath of Helena, chief clerk; Casper Nybo, Missoula; sergeant at arms, and Rev. William E. Burkhardt of the Plymouth Congregational Church of Helena, as chaplain.

Hazelbaker appointed the following legislators to the House Administrative Committee, which makes all the appointments of House employes during the session: Reps. Norris Nichols of Ravalli County, chairman; Dan Dykstra, Lewis and Clark County, vice chairman; Broeder, Flathead County; Leonard Regan, Cascade County, and John Pierce of Yellowstone County. Regan is the only Democrat.

Hazelbaker said he would announce his appointments to other House standing committees after the start of the session. He expects to return to Dillon Tuesday evening.

The Weather Score Board

Jupiter Pluvius continues to wrack up a record in 1962 compared with 1961. The WMCE Weather Bureau reported this morning that we have had 14.7 inches of moisture up to today compared with 6 inches during the same period in 1961. During November of this year we received 1.43 compared to .10 last year. While street conditions in Dillon are slippery, the highways were in good condition Sunday, but motorists are warned to drive carefully. A light skiff of snow fell in our area this morning and the prediction is that more may follow.
