Farm Youth Exchange delegate.

Miss Powell, a junior from Cardwell, has not yet been notified where she will be sent; she hopes that it will be some place in Europe. She has studied German; therefore she would prefer going somewhere that she can make use of that language.

Coral expects to leave on her assignment early next summer for a stay that may last as long as six months. During that time she will live with farm families who, with the help of many community groups, will show her their way of life. Meanwhile she will give them an insight of the United States and its people.

After returning home, she expects to share her observations, experiences, and ideas and sou-

Students Honored At Assembly

(From the WMCE Wescolite)

The awards assembly for presentation of 1962 football lettermen and Who's Who candidates was held Thursday, Dec. 13, at 9:40 a.m.

Nancy Mielke, Harlowton, initiated the assembly with an organ recital consisting of Bach's Fantasy in C Minor and other numbers.

The presentation of football awards was made by Dr. Short to the athletes who earned them during the 1962 football season. Those who received letters were Larry Baldwin, Jim Bennetts, George Bentley, Bob Burk, Rick Cadieux, Fred Cobell, Dale Combs, Mick Delaney, Pat Delger, Butch Donovan, Dick Doyle, Jerry Fitzsimmons, Jack Gillespie, Tom Heisler, Jerry Kirschner, Gary McMorris, Joe Malletta, Dick Maroney, Harry Martz, Dick Menti, Bob Murray, Cliff Neighbor, Jim Netz, Bob Nielson, Jack Nielsen, Fred Salmonson, Bud Shuman, Jim Sumner, Bud Talbott, Ed Wright, and Shawn Davis, manager.

Dr. Short then presented the members of the senior class who were named to represent Western in the 1962 edition of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. These ten students were nominated on the basis of demonstrated ability and leadership. Receiving this recognition were Karen Bergum, Helena; Shawn Davis, Whitehall; Jane Duncan, Dillon; Jack Gillespie,

KZN Anticipates Xmas Holidays

(From the WMCE Wescolite)

Anticipating the coming holidays, KZN members held a Christmas party December 5, for their social meeting of the month. The freshmen girls were also invited so that they could become acquainted with the organization.

Following a welcome by President Karen Bergum, entertainment was provided by pianist Velma Wallace and a singing trio composed of Bonnie Beck, Tonya Gustafson, and Shirley Webber. In addition Bonnie sang a solo. After participating in group singing, all present enjoyed refreshments.

Lutheran Students Have Meeting

(From the WMCE Wescolite)

Fourteen students of Western participated in a Lutheran Students' Association meeting Sunday, Dec. 2 at the church.

To observe the Advent season, Pastor Feuerstack led a discussion on sections of the Old Testament that foretold the coming of Christ.

The next meeting of LSA will be Sunday evening Jan. 13, 1963, at the church parish hall. All students are urged to attend.

MARY WORTH

YOU'VE BEEN VERY QUIET, PATTY!... THINKING OVER MY OFFER?

TELL ME, DAN... WHY, AFTER ALL THESE YEARS, HAVE YOU DECIDED TO MARRY?

I'LL BE QUITE FRANK! YOU ARE SO MUCH LIKE YOUR MOTHER. THAT BEING WITH YOU IS... WELL... AS IF THE GODS HAD GIVEN ME A CHANCE TO LIVE 50 BITTER YEARS OVER AGAIN... THE WAY I DREAMED OF LIVING THEM!

JUST ONE WORD FROM YOU WOULD WORK THAT MAGIC, PATTY! WON'T YOU SAY IT?... SOMEHOW, I THINK YOUR MOTHER WOULD APPROVE! AFTER ALL... BEFORE YOUR FATHER CAME ALONG... SHE WOULD HAVE MARRIED ME!

LET ME THINK ABOUT IT, DAN... UNTIL TOMORROW!
