

Account Relates U.S. Men Shot

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Globe says a U.S. Marine patrol released five wanted American servicemen, watched them jog out into a small field and then opened fire on them in Vietnam in 1969.

what it said was a stipulation of facts agreed to by prosecution and defense at a court-martial of Marine Pvt. Michael D. Maynard, 21, of Jordan, Utah, in September 1969 at Da Nang.

The report in Monday's editions, said four escapees from the Marine brig at Da Nang and one AWOL Marine were heading towards a wooden house they shared with two Vietnamese girls when they ran into the patrol April 29, 1969.

Maynard, now jailed at the Portsmouth, N.H., naval brig, was quoted by the newspaper as saying he and the others were recognized as fugitives and the patrol demanded their weapons.

He said the two groups faced each other with weapons ready but the fugitives gave up their guns after the patrol sergeant promised he would let them go, the newspaper's account said.

"So we turned around and took off, not running, you know what I mean, kind of jogging, because you know we thought we were free."

"We got about 20 yards away and they opened up," he was quoted as saying.

The Globe said one man died. The survivors reportedly were court-martialed on mutiny and a variety of other charges.

Maynard, who had been with Marine Aircraft Group 11, pleaded guilty to mutiny and escape from confinement. He is serving a three-year term.

The month-long 1971 Heart Fund Campaign will reach its high point on Heart Sunday weekend, with a luncheon to be served at the St. James Guild Hall Saturday from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. and chaired by Myrtle Pewe and the Heart Sunday drive to follow the next day, according to Beaverhead County Heart Sunday chairman, Barbara Cottom. The luncheon will feature sloppy joes, a tossed salad, home-made cakes with coffee or punch and should be a special attraction for those in Dillon at the Class C district basketball tournament Mrs. Cottom said.

Sunday, 35 volunteer workers will be visiting homes in their neighborhoods asking for contributions to the heart fund which is conducted to support and expand research, education and community service programs of the Beaverhead County Heart Association.

In addition to the luncheon and the Heart Sunday drive directed by Mrs. Cottom, Bob Harrison is chairman of the Rural Heart Drive while Ron Wagner has taken charge of the fund raising effort in the business district of Dillon.

Quake Area Hit By Aftershocks

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Four more aftershocks from last week's temblor rattled the Los Angeles area Tuesday. No new serious damage was reported.

Meanwhile, the official death toll increased to 64 and 11 quake-damaged buildings in the Los Angeles City School District were ordered demolished, including Los Angeles High School, scene for the television series "Room 222." The order affects 20,000 pupils.

Building inspectors continued to check structures in the San Fernando Valley, north of downtown, where 5,704 structures were reported damaged. More than 1,100 dwelling units have been declared unsafe and residents told to vacate them.

The big quake Feb. 9 caused damage estimated up to $1 billion and more than 1,000 injuries. It registered 6.6 magnitude on the Richter scale, hundreds of times more powerful than the aftershocks.

The latest victims were Arthur Cahill, 57, who died Monday and Mabel Meyers, 87, who died early Tuesday. Cahill was a patient at the San Fernando Veterans Hospital in Sylmar, where two wings collapsed. Mrs. Meyers died of complications from a broken leg suffered when she fell at her Long Beach home during the quake.

City School Supt. William Johnston told the Board of Education that about $209 million would be needed to replace and repair quake-damaged buildings and meet quake-resistant standards set by the state.

He said he would propose a $160-million bond issue and ask the federal government for the rest. Besides Los Angeles High, two elementary schools were closed by damage. The 619-school system sustained 97 per cent of damage to school buildings reported in the county, officials said.

Double sessions were to start today at six schools to accommodate transferred students, including 3,400 from 54-year-old Los Angeles High, the city's oldest. They will attend Fairfax High, 46 blocks away.

Murder Charge

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Authorities have lodged murder charges against the second of two brothers in the execution style slayings of three peace officers.

A search widened throughout the state, meanwhile, for ex-convict Rene Adolpho Guzman, 33, one of the accused pair. He was described to investigators as "a real mean man—he thinks he's Al Capone."

Dallas County Sheriff Clarence Jones said Guzman and his brother, Moses Zunia Guzman, 35, were at a house where five officers were taken captive. Jones said the two Guzmans escorted the deputies to a spot in the Trinity River bottom where the killings took place Monday night.

The deputies were checking the license number of a car spotted in a small town south of here while a burglary was being committed.

A hail of gunfire killed sheriff's deputies Sam Infante, 32, and William D. Reese, 31, of Dallas County and A. J. Robertson, 59, from neighboring Ellis County, where the burglary occurred.

Another Ellis deputy, Wendell Dover, 49, suffered bullet wounds in the chest. The fifth officer held captive for a time, Dallas deputy A.D. McCurley, 50, escaped harm by diving over an embankment while Reese grappled with their assailants.

McGuire Rites Set in Helena

Rosary will be recited at 7 p.m. Wednesday at the Hagler Mortuary of Helena with Requiem Mass at 10 a.m. Thursday at St. Mary Church for J. Frank McGuire, 82, lifetime Montana resident who died Tuesday at St. John Hospital in Helena following a short illness. Burial will be in Resurrection Cemetery of Helena.

Mr. McGuire was born July 21, 1889 in Townsend and was a graduate of Montana State College in Bozeman.

He was engaged in Indian affairs in eastern Montana for a time, then taught school in western Montana before becoming a case worker with the Montana Welfare Department. After his retirement he acted often as a substitute teacher in the Helena school system, where he taught a class the week before his death.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Richard (Sally) McEldery of Dillon and Katy Dodge of Helena; sons James F. McGuire of Helena, John P. McGuire of Cascade and William L. McGuire of Missoula as well as 20 grandchildren.

Heart Damage Repaired, Boy Army Getting Along

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (AP) — When he was 9 years old, specialists said John Clemmer would not live through his teens unless they patched up a hole in his heart the size of a nickel.

Now, at 18, he is nearing the end of military basic training, the first man known to have been accepted by the U.S. Army after open heart surgery, his parents said Monday in an interview.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Clemmer said John, their only son, plans to make a career of the Army.

Before the surgery, John was a thin, sickly child who tired easily and had to avoid strenuous activity.

Today he's a 175-pound, 6-foot athlete who was a wrestler and football and basketball player in high school as well as a weekend skier.

The surgery in July 1961 was one of the first open heart operations by Dr. Norman Shumway, one of the world's leading heart transplant physicians.

The insertion of a plastic patch in the wall of the heart was an unqualified success, said John's parents.

When his girlfriend, Lettie Sweet, enlisted in the Women's Army Corps last year, John decided to try for military acceptance too. Rejected at first, he got a letter from Dr. Shumway saying there was no longer any heart problem, and the Army decided to give him a series of tests.

John was sent to an Army hospital, where doctors approved his enlistment.

He went into the Army last Jan. 4 and is scheduled to complete basic training March 5 at Ft. Lewis, Wash.

"He really loves it," said his father. "He hopes to get a commission."

The father added, "Some people ask me why he went ahead when he had a ready-made deferment. Well, I say thank God that we've still got some men that want to go. We have to have dedicated men in the service, too."

Silver Star Woman Wins Hawaii Trip

Mrs. June Roper of Silver Star is the winner of an all-expense trip to Hawaii for two, sponsored by the Montana Travel Agency of Bozeman.

Mrs. Roper's name was drawn by Jack Rosenberg of Rosenberg's Furniture, who was sponsor of the week on the Magieland grand drawing last Friday night. Mrs. Roper was a member of Magieland, and therefore qualified to win one of the grand prizes.

Bob Stevens of the Montana Travel Agency, will present the prize to Mrs. Roper on the next Magieland grand drawing show, Friday.

Hearings Slated In Grand Larceny

BOULDER — Three grand larceny cases were scheduled to be heard in the regular session of District Court in Boulder Thursday before Judge Frank E. Blair.

Sam Akins, charged with stealing one calf (steer or heifer) Oct. 6, 1970 entered a plea of guilty to the charge. Judge Blair sentenced him to 10 years in the Montana State Prison at Deer Lodge, the last seven to be suspended for good behavior and Akins to be placed on probation with the state probation department.

The information of the theft was filed Jan. 28, 1971. The calf belonged to the Tomhawk Ranch — K. and Dave Williams.

The other two cases will be heard at a later date. One entered a plea of not guilty to the charge, and the second asked for additional time to prepare his case.

Judge Blair appointed John H. Jardine and Charles E. Petaja to act as counsel for the defense, and asked the attorneys to prepare briefs.

Acreage Surveys

Planting intention questionnaires are being prepared for a Feb. 18 mailing to a cross section of Montana farmers and ranchers to obtain their 1971 planting intentions.

Rainy Slalom Derby

Rainy Mountain Ski area will host the Northern Division Butte Ski Club Duo Slalom Derby Saturday and Sunday, when the location of the meet had to be changed from Beef Trail to the local area due to lack of snow at Butte.

The Derby is open to Area II intermediate, novice and midget Alpine racers, with entries closing Thursday. They should be sent to Shirley Keltz, 3707 Augusta, in Butte. Races will begin at 11 a.m. Saturday and Sunday morning with information available at the Rainy Mountain lodge.

Skiers planning to attend the meet should make note of the fact that accommodations will be scarce in Dillon due to the District 10-C basketball tournament, but rooms will be available in Jackson, with travel conditions between Jackson and Rainy Mountain considered in good condition.

Awards are to be presented Sunday afternoon immediately following the last race.

Long Hair Not Proper: Judge

WASHINGTON (AP) — Justice Hugo L. Black, all but bald and nearing 85, concluded last week the Constitution does not give high school boys the right to wear their hair long.

More than that, Black said, lawyers should not be pressing the Supreme Court with "emergency motions" claiming the nation will be in crisis unless long hair is allowed.

Black set forth his views in ruling against Chesley Karr, a student at Coronado High School in El Paso, Tex. The boy wanted him to suspend the school's rule against long hair while a suit against the rule moves through the courts.

Black said he could not take the Karr boy's plea seriously except on one point—"the idea that anyone should think the federal Constitution imposes on the United States courts the burden of supervising the length of hair that public school students should wear."

All the federal courts, including the Supreme Court, are heavily burdened with important cases, the kind they must be able to handle if they are to perform their responsibility to society, the justice wrote.

Snow Race Winners

Ted Gould, with his teammates from Teton City, Idaho, was winner of the second annual 99-mile cross country snowmobile race at Carroll Hill Saturday. The five-man team on Skidoos came in in three hours and five minutes. The next three teams crossed the finish line at 10 minute intervals and were the Cleon Cordon team of Ashton, Idaho, Larry Rigby's team from St. Anthony, Idaho and Bennett Owens team from Dillon. Only one serious injury was reported among the 120 men completing the course, and that was to Gordon Bennett on the Dillon team who was injured when he was thrown from his machine, cutting a knee and injuring his head. He completed the race, then was taken to a hospital.
