Welcome To Dillon

Dillon-Welcome Wagon features, Mary Hackett, has made history in Dillon history as well as in Montana, when she married the first Black man to serve in the U.S. Marine Corps. In 1943, during World War II, U.S. Marines arrived on the doorstep of Dillon, and a new era of history began. The Dillon Legion Hall was opened, and the U.S. Marines donated a flag, a 40-year-old flag, to the town. Today, the U.S. Marines are still present in Dillon, and the flag is displayed proudly.

In 1879, the British American Legion, the oldest leg of the American Legion, was formed. The Legionnaires from Melrose, the city where Dillon is located, are part of this organization. They have been active in the community for many years, and their contributions are greatly appreciated.

Jaycees, 8 p.m., Hotel Andrus.
