Local Notes

J. Samuel Davis, senior at Beaverhead County High School and son of Dr. and Mrs. Sam Davis of Dillon, is one of 80 young Montanans nominated Dec. 4 by Senator Mike Mansfield to compete for appointments to United States service academies to enter classes in June, 1974.

The Dillon hopper student is one of 10 young men competing for the Senator's appointment to the Military Academy at West Point.

The Senator has three appointments vacancies at the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, and two to the Merchant Marine Academy in Kings Point.

Police Court

Dec. 6, Justice of the Peace Walter Delaney presiding: Jim Lohnes, public intoxication, $15 fine; Rick Mirabella, dog at large, $20 bond; Clarence King, public intoxication, $15; Mrs. David Mathson, dog at large, $20 fine; Tony Knapp, speeding, $20 fine; failure to appear $5 fine; Edward W. Berry, speeding, $20 fine; Terri McCoy Petersen, speeding, $20 bond; Wayne Dwitt Vert, speeding, $20 bond.

Police Beat

Dillon officers were called to search for two runaway boys (returned to their parents) and investigate two accidents Thursday. Five drivers were cited for speeding and one for running a stop sign. One man was arrested for public intoxication.

Ambulance Calls

The Beaverhead ambulance was used twice Thursday. The first trip was made to Warm Springs to move a patient from the city jail. Driver and attendants on the trip were Ed and Mike Swetish.

Two police officers, Don Burwell and Dan Goyette, doubled as ambulance attendants when a man was injured in a fall in front of the Lobby Bar about midnight Thursday. They took the man to Barrett Hospital for treatment and observation.

Accidents

Judith Marie Paull, 20, of Sheridan, driving a 1973 Maverick two-door, was making a turn on Thomsen Avenue Thursday afternoon and skidded in loose gravel. She lost control of the car which went into a ditch. She was not injured and the car was not damaged according to the investigating officer, Don Burwell.

A morning accident involved two vehicles. No damages were reported by either driver and no injuries.

Francie A. Smith, 20, of Dillon was traveling north on Wyoming at Glendale in a 1967 Chevrolet half-ton pickup as Robert D. Rhea, 30, also of Dillon, was traveling east on Glendale in a 1969 Dodge station wagon.

The two vehicles collided near the center of the intersection and came to rest on the side of the street. The investigating officer was Chief John Reigh.

Club Notes

The Veterans of Foreign Wars will be hosting the weekly card party Saturday evening, with play beginning at the Legion Hall at 7:30.

Jewel Carrigan took the ladies high at the recent party with May Johnson the women's low. Men's high went to Herb Sturm and Albert Streb was low.

Carol Martin received the traveling prize and Lyda Nelson took home the door prize.

The Dillon Shakespeare Club will meet Saturday afternoon at the home of Ruth Puyeur with Joe Ryburn as guest leader for the study of King Lear.

Youth Reports

Rainbow for Girls
At the recent meeting of the Dillon Rainbow for Girls, Lisa Hamilton termed the Rainbow Formal a success and said compliments were due the decorations, band and refreshments.

All the orders for the cookbooks are to be in at the next meeting. The Eastern Stars and mothers volunteered to help representatives sell ads.

The Father-Daughter banquet will be held Dec. 12 at the Masonic Hall and all Rainbow girls are invited to attend.

Initiation will take place at that time with rehearsals Saturday and Monday. Four girls served at a Masonic dinner and four others cleaned up.

Other plans for December include a Drive for Doctors for Dillon Monday night and a Christmas slumber party.

Cody Larson and Perry Rankin were elected to receive the degrees and a petition from Mary Ann Nicholas was read.

Irene Cornforth was hostess for the 500 Club in her home Wednesday afternoon. A no-host luncheon was served and the afternoon was spent playing cards with honors going to Norma Reid, Hazel Turner and Mae Edwards. Other members present were Loretta Hillier, Opal Cox, Besse Jackson, Alta Pitcher, Ethel Vanertuin, Val Tella, Delda Pfirmer and Sadie Clark and Henrietta Donegan was a guest.

Don High presided at the meeting of the Madison County Pioneers that was held in the City Library Monday evening. They planned their Christmas party for December 17. Details to be decided later.

The Sewing Club met at the Blue Anchor Friday afternoon for a no-host luncheon. Irene Cornforth called the meeting to order. The club voted in a new member, Lola Spracklin. They decided to meet at the Blue Anchor Dec. 14 for a Christmas party. They will have a luncheon and exchange of gifts.

The Beaverhead ambulance was used twice Thursday. The first trip was made to Warm Springs to move a patient from the city jail. Driver and attendants on the trip were Ed and Mike Swetish.
