Police Beat

Dillon officers made only one arrest Wednesday, that for public intoxication. They were kept busy patrolling the streets and answering several calls from homeowners concerning vandalism and abandoned property.

Accidents

The storm blowing into Beaverhead County Wednesday added to already slick roads and created traffic hazards which contributed to several accidents, in Dillon and on county roads, resulting in property damage and one injury.

Police Court

Dec. 27, Justice of the Peace Walter Delaney presiding: William Shehorn, Larry D. Shehorn and Manuel E. Shehorn, public intoxication, four days in jail, then remanded to Frontier Halfway House; J. W. Longley, 58, drunk in public, six days in jail then to Frontier Halfway House; Gerry Jacobs, 43, drunk in public, five days in jail then to Frontier Halfway House.

Ambulance Calls

The Beaverhead ambulance was called at 4:38 p.m. to the scene of a motorcycle accident to take the victim to Barrett Hospital. After examination the patient was then transferred to St. James Community Hospital in Butte with Swede Troedsson and Jim Wilson serving as the attendants.

News Roundup

Kohoutek close to sun

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Comet Kohoutek makes its closest approach to the sun Friday as it begins a swing which will take it back out of the solar system. Kohoutek is to reach perihelion, or the low point in its orbit, at 5:24 a.m., EST. At that time, it will be only 13.24 million miles from the sun and traveling at 251,400 miles per hour.

Library and historical groups suffer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Library of Congress and many state libraries and historical groups have suffered because of a law change that removed tax deductions for donations of official and personal papers by prominent Americans. Officials said such contributions have virtually dried up since the change took place in 1969.

Crime rate increases

WASHINGTON (AP) — The national crime rate increased one per cent in the first nine months of the year, the Justice Department says. This compares with a two per cent decline in the first nine months of last year. The largest crime rise was in the South which reported a four per cent hike. There was a two per cent rise in the North Central States while crime remained at last year's level in the Northeast and declined two per cent in the West.

Armed force recruiting jumps

WASHINGTON (AP) — Recruiting by the armed services has jumped in recent months and Pentagon officials are seeking to learn why. Officials are checking with new volunteers to learn if they joined up because of fears of economic recession. Pentagon spokesmen said they want to know if the upturn heralds long-term gains or will only last as long as youths are unsure about civilian jobs.

White House won't release papers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House will not release summaries and transcripts of presidential conversations it had been preparing to disclose, sources report. According to the sources the decision is a reaction to the Senate Watergate committee's wide-ranging subpoena for documents. Aides to President Nixon reportedly fear that disclosure of the documents in preparation could hurt Nixon's fight against the committee subpoena.
