A HARMONIOUS CAUCUS.

Nominations for Aldermen Made at the Court; House Monday Night.

A harmonious crowd was the one that gathered at the court house Monday evening in response to the call made by the city council. Mayor Morse called the meeting to order and stated that an alderman from each ward was to be selected. The residents of each ward then got together and perfected an organization, the business transacted being as follows:

First ward—G. T. Paul, chosen chairman, and H. R. Melton, secretary. The chairman then appointed Fred Waldorf, George G. Taylor and Ray S. Conger as judges and announced that nominations were in order. B. F. White and A. L. Stone were the nominees. The vote was White, 18; Stone, 7; and Mr. White was declared to be the nominee for the first ward.

Second ward—Leonard Eliel was elected chairman, F. C. Kross secretary and W. S. Pyle, Pat Phillips and Martin Innes were the judges appointed. Leonard Eliel was the only name presented for the nomination and the ballot showed he was the unanimous choice for alderman of the second ward.

Third ward—R. J. Moore was chairman and Walter Crowell secretary. The judges were, Geo. A. Barton, Wm. M. Knapp and Geo. Wolfe. O. M. Best Best was nominated but he declined and nominated W. M. Knapp, who was then chosen by a unanimous vote to be the candidate in the third ward.

A. L. Stone, Leonard Eliel and H. D. Brainard are the retiring aldermen.

Enormous Sales of Two Steps.

First Sousa with his "Liberty Bell" two-step gave an idea of the popular demand for a really good thing. Then Kerry Mills followed with "Georgia Camp Meeting" and "Impeccunus Davis," of which latter it is asserted 255,000 copies have been sold. Now every day brings orders for the new favorite, "Dance on Friday Night," and what the high water mark will be no one can tell.—Chicago Tribune.

All the latest songs and two-steps for sale at Tribune store.

Graves to be Marked.

Although a costly monument marks the spot of the Battle of the Big Hole, which occurred in 1877 when the Nez Perces were on the war path, none of the individual graves of the brave men who met a cruel death that day have been permanently marked. Congress is taking steps to mark the graves of the men who fell in that battle. A short time ago the senate passed the following resolution: "That the secretary of war be and is hereby directed to ascertain and report to the senate the legal subdivisions of land over which the battle of Big Hole, in Montana, was fought in 1877, and what, if any, action has been taken, to properly mark the graves of those killed and buried on or near the battlefield, and to preserve such marks from obliteration."

R. T. Stevens solicitor for the Salt Lake Herald was in town Thursday. Mr. Stevens was highly pleased with this vicinity.

DILLON INFORMATION CARD

DILLON, the county seat of Beaverhead county, Montana, is a conservatively growing city of 2,000 inhabitants on the Oregon Short Line railroad, 69 miles south of Butte, the greatest mining camp on earth, and 385 miles north of Salt Lake City.

It is surrounded on all sides by rich, but practically undeveloped mining districts, producing gold, silver, copper and lead. Other minerals, including iron, zinc, mica, agricultural and grazing lands.

It is the home of the only State Normal school in Montana. A splendid and beautiful building has been built and an able corps of instructors employed.

One of the best, free public schools in the state. The High School is one of the accredited institutions of instruction in the state.

Five splendidly built church edifices, liberally patronized and presided over by talented pastors. They are the Methodist, Presbyterian, Episcopal, Baptist and Catholic.

Five fine stone, brick and frame residences—nice in their appointments as any eastern city of many times its size.

It is a remarkable little city in the number of secret orders. They are, Masonic societies, Knights of Pythias, Odd Fellows, Macabees, Workmen, Woodmen of the world, Foresters, etc. Such clubs are also maintained.

Our public library is one of the largest in the state.

Has hotel facilities and up-to-date accommodations for a city three or four times its size.

All trades and professions are, at present, amply represented.

Plenty of room for a couple of hundred or more ranchers to raise grain, poultry, produce and dairy products for the best market on earth. Best prices, too. No government land that can be easily irrigated, close to Dillon.

We have, in short, nice homes, wealthy citizens, prosperous stockraisers, good mining localities, etc., besides the best people on earth. Plenty of amusements and lots of room to grow up, conservatively speaking.

Phil Conroy, one of the pioneers of Alder gulch, was in town Monday on a brief visit. He stated that the dredge boats now working on the property sold by him to the Conroy and German Bar placer companies, a few years ago, will be ready to start up soon, some heavier machinery being installed at present. In the opinion of some placer experts, Mr. Conroy says, the dredge system now used will not handle the gravel of that district to a good advantage as the gravel is cemented too hard. A set of buckets such as are used at Bannack, which will ordinarily last for several seasons, will wear out after a few months' use in the gravel beds of Alder gulch canyon.

Want a New Trial.

Says the Inter Mountain of last Friday: F. D. Toms and J. J. Cusick have notified James A. Murray that they intend to move for a new trial in the suit brought by them against Murray some time ago to determine title to a block of stock in the Pocatello Water company, and which was won by defendant. The ground upon which the case is to be based is alleged irregularity in the proceedings of the court and abuse of the discretion by which the plaintiffs were prevented from having a fair trial; also alleged insufficiency of evidence to justify the decision and order made.

Mrs. Geo. Mudd has been quite ill the past week but is recovering.

It's Easy To Take

Thin, pale, anæmic girls need a fatty food to enrich their blood, give color to their cheeks and restore their health and strength. It is safe to say that they nearly all reject fat with their food.

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF
WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME & SODA

is exactly what they require; it not only gives them the important element (cod-liver oil) in a palatable and easily digested form, but also the hypophosphites which are so valuable in nervous disorders that usually accompany anæmia.

SCOTT'S EMULSION is a fatty food that is more easily digested than any other form of fat. A certain amount of flesh is necessary for health. You can get it in this way.

We have known persons to gain a pound a day while taking it.
