

WASH AN ELEPHANT? SHUCKS, CHILD'S PLAY

Maintenance crews at March Field, Riverside, Cal., took on something B-I-G when they gave the giant Douglas B-19—biggest thing ever to fly—a fall housecleaning. These men cleaning the tall elevators are dwarfed by the huge tall of the ship.

WAR FLASHES

GERMANS JOIN FINN FORCES AT LENINGRAD

BERLIN—German sources claimed today that Nazi troops have affected a meeting of Finnish troops driving down from the Karelian isthmus to complete the ring of steel that is now set about Leningrad. The Germans said that Leningrad, which has been under bombardment from German artillery for four days, has been completely cut off from land connections with the severance of the Leningrad-Murmansk railway.

RUSSIANS ROUT NAZI INFANTRY DIVISIONS

MOSCOW—Climax of a large scale battle on the central front occurred yesterday with the rout of eight German infantry divisions totaling 115,000 men, Moscow reported. Center of the conflict raged around Yelnya, about 40 miles east of Smolensk, and 200 miles from Moscow.

OCCUPATION OF SPITZBERGEN COMPLETED

LONDON—Occupation of Spitzbergen, Arctic island rich in coal, has been completed by Canadian, British and Norwegian troops, it was announced in London. The Allies, beating Hitler to the punch, moved swiftly and secretly against the island which is but 750 miles from the North pole, landing soldiers and Norwegian miners, who along with the Russians, will work the coal mines. No interference was received from the Germans.

CHURCHILL CALLS FOR SACRIFICES

LONDON—Prime Minister Churchill called on Americans for greater sacrifices through curtailment of civilian consumption in order that the U. S. defense program might go ahead full speed. He warned that Hitler may force the U. S. Navy into warfare on the Atlantic. After his speech to the House, the question of an expeditionary force was brought up and it was pointed out that a larger army than was used in 1918 would be necessary to invade the continent.

REGISTRATION OF "HUMAN SKILLS" IS STARTED HERE

Beaverhead county's "human skills" registration commenced Monday at the city hall in Dillon. Mrs. Earl Opp, a member of the county Preparedness and Advisory commission, is in charge of the registration. The move is part of the nation-wide drive designed to locate emergency manpower, and is entirely voluntary. W. W. Hawkins, chairman of the committee, said.

All male persons 18 years of age and over who are engaged in farming, professional men or employees of cities, counties, state or federal government are requested to register. In addition, professional women, women who have been professional nurses, but who have not registered under the "National Survey of Registered Nurses" and any other persons who do not have social security numbers have been asked to come to the city hall and register their "human skills."

Registrations are being conducted in all counties of the state during the month of September.

AAA MEET TO BE HELD—

A county-wide AAA meeting will be held in the office of Bernard Williams, county agent, Wednesday, it has been announced. The session will be in regard to wheat acreage allotments and wheat marketing quotas. All persons interested are invited to attend.

Death Claims Prominent Business Man of Dillon

Death came to Harry E. Andrus, 79, prominent Dillon business man and one-time Beaverhead rancher, this morning at 7:45 o'clock, following months of lingering illness. His family was at his bedside in the Andrus hotel when he passed away. His condition had been regarded as critical since the first of April.

Always active in civic affairs and a great booster of Beaverhead and Dillon, Mr. Andrus will be missed by a host of friends in the county and many around the state who remember him as a Dillon hotel man. That Mr. Andrus believed in the progress and future of Dillon was shown in 1917 when, after the sale of his ranch in Big Sheep creek basin, he came back to build the Andrus hotel.

He was born Aug. 30, 1862 in Lafayette, Ind. As a small boy he went with his parents to Boulder, Colo., where he later attended college and served as a pharmacy apprentice under his uncle. Mr. Andrus was married to Margaret Rosenbaum of Boulder in 1881. After being in business a number of years in Colorado, he moved with his family to Dillon in October, 1897 and established himself in the livestock business on Meadow Creek ranch in Big Sheep creek basin near Dell, becoming one of Beaverhead county's leading early-day ranchers.

In 1916 he sold his ranch to A. E. Scott and the following year built the Andrus hotel.

Mr. Andrus was a member of the Dillon Elks lodge No. 1554 and was a charter member of the Dillon Rotary club. He also served for several years on the Beaverhead county fair board. A lifelong Democrat, he took an active part in the county's Democratic organization.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret; a son and daughter-in-law, Postmaster and Mrs. Harry J. Andrus of Dillon and their two children, Carla and Donna; two daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Farnum Schuyler of Dillon and Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hyslop; a grandson, Harry Colfer of Dillon; a brother, H. B. Andrus of Boulder, Colo.; a sister, Mrs. Barbara Platt of Hot Springs, S. Dak.; a brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Rosenbaum of Butte and several nieces and nephews.

The body is at the Brundage funeral home. Last rites have not been arranged, pending word from relatives.

SATURDAY CLOSING HOURS

Dry goods and clothing stores will close at 6 p. m. on Saturdays, commencing Saturday, Sept. 13, it was announced by the apparel group of the Dillon Chamber of Commerce. Closing on Saturday nights will be in effect throughout the winter months.

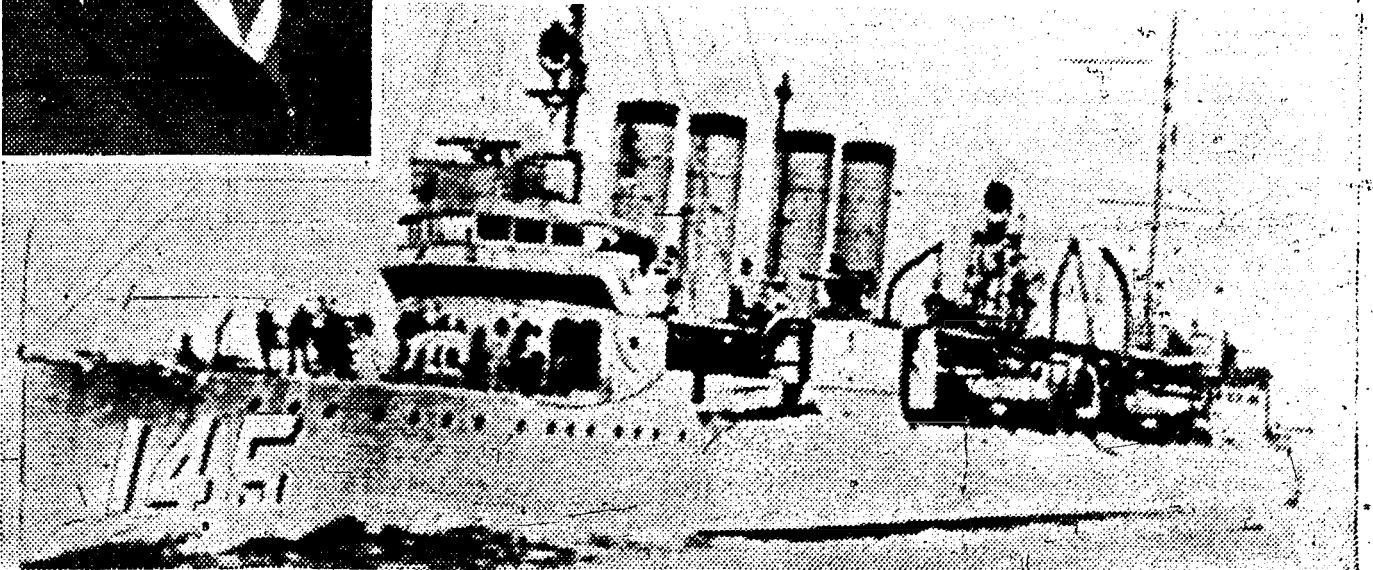

Only exception will be during Christmas week when stores will stay open in the evenings to accommodate the rush.

"ELIMINATE PROWLER," SAYS F. D. R. AFTER DESTROYER ATTACK

"ELIMINATE" ... THE SUBMARINE THAT ...

ATTACKED THE U. S. DESTROYER GREER

Stern words came from President Roosevelt after an unidentified submarine attacked the U. S. destroyer Greer in the Atlantic off Iceland. American naval forces are hunting the submarine, he said, with orders to "eliminate it," if found. Lower, the U. S. S. Greer.
