

The DILLON DAILY TRIBUNE
 Published by
The Tribune Publishing Co.
 Albert Erickson, Publisher.

Subscription Rates in Advance
 One Year .....$2.50
 Six Months ..... 1.25
 Three Months ..... .65
 Per Week ..... .05

Entered as second class matter
 June 12, 1886, at the postoffice, at Dillon, Montana, under the act of March 3, 1879.

National Advertising representative, The American Press Association.
 Telephone 66

WISDOM

George Oliver of Salmon, Idaho visited the Big Hole this week where Walter White is pasturing cattle for him on the Gordon Knowles ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Capehart and Mrs. Stewart Capehart motored to Sand Point, Idaho the last of the week. They were met there by Stewart Capehart and spent Sunday together. Stewart is working at Coeur d'Alene.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Anderson, who are employed on the P and O ranch in the Dillon vicinity, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schneider in Wisdom.

Cloyd Wampler who was called to Rochester, Minn., several weeks ago by the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. Jessie Smith of Butte, returned to Wisdom Monday.

Mrs. Cecile Hirschy of Butte is spending the haying season with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Woodward.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Stone of Anaconda were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Anderson.

Clayton Huntley went to Butte on Monday with George Helming to visit his dentist.

William Holm visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Holm, over the week end. He is employed with the Union Construction company which has just completed a job in Missoula and is employed at the air port in Great Falls.

Leo Walsh of Butte visited on Sunday with Mrs. Walsh and daughter, Sheila Gay, who are spending the haying season in the Big Hole.

Among residents of Anaconda who are vacationing in the hay fields are Jim Anderson who is stacking on his brother Jack's ranch and Mr. and Mrs. Ray York who are working on the Charley York ranch.

Dan Tucker, who has been employed for two years on the Fred Hirschy ranch, took his final examinations for the U. S. military service in Dillon Monday. His son, Larry, had gone to make his home in Cody, Wyo., with Mr. Tucker's sister, Mrs. Dora Martin.

Lambert Eliel is among those who are spending their Sundays in the Big Hole helping to put up the hay on the Fred Hirschy ranches. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wedum of Dillon also took a hand in this work last Sunday.

Ray Miller of Pomeroy, Ohio was a guest several days last week at the home of his uncle, C. E. Miller and family on the U-U ranch. He was accompanied on his motor trip by Bert Calvin. Both boys are expecting to join the military service in the very near future.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson and son, Teddy, were Butte visitors on Friday.

Notwithstanding a shortage of competent help in the Big Hole hay fields, a very good crop is going up rapidly. Fred Hirschy has already completed operations on the Hirschy home place and the Jorgensen ranch and moved to the Dudley place on Tuesday.

Several young men from the Wisdom vicinity went to Dillon Monday for physical examinations, including Nick Helteline, Chester Ritchel and Cy Hall.

Chaplains with the U. S. armed forces are using chalices made of goldplate over an iron base.

SUBSCRIBE for the TRIBUNE

MRS. LUCY LAWRENCE WEDS AT CHOTEAU

Wisdom—(Special)—Mrs. Lucy Lawrence of Wisdom and James Old of Walkerville exchanged vows in the Methodist church in Choteau on Saturday, July 25. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth of Choteau, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, were in attendance.

Mrs. Old is a native of the Big Hole and the daughter of Weldon Else. Mr. Old is a veteran of the first World war and has made his home in Walkerville for many years with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. James Old are at home to their friends at 20 Rose street, Walkerville. Mrs. Old has many friends in the Big Hole who wish every happiness to the newly-weds.

DANCE HALL USED FOR WHEAT STORAGE

Helena — (U.P.) — Montana farmers are using everything and every place available to store their wheat, including a dance pavilion.

One state official, who recently returned from a trip of Eastern Montana, said he saw in Brush Lake, Sheridan county, a dance hall and an old hotel being braced to store wheat.

Mrs. Tony Schultz of Long Beach, Calif., is visiting here with her father, J. D. Berry.

OFFICIAL CALL FOR CONVENTION OF THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF BEAVERHEAD COUNTY, MONTANA

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 662, Revised Codes of Montana, 1935, a Convention of the Beaverhead County, Montana, Republican Central Committee will be held at the Courthouse, Dillon, Montana, on the 21st day of August, 1942, for the purpose of electing a Chairman, Secretary and other officers, and a State Committeeman and a State Committeewoman, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before said Meeting.

Dated at Dillon, Montana, this 5th day of August, 1942.

SAM W. DITTY,
 Chairman, Republican County Central Committee of Beaverhead County, Montana.

LIFE'S LIKE THAT

By FRED NEHER

"I'm sorry, sir, but that's the last one we have left and we're saving it for the foursome of George Gosman, H. M. Brundage, Leonard Schulz and A. M. Jones."

DILLON SKETCHES

By WILL DANCH

"It's a funny thing, but the pants I buy for Henry always seem to fit me better than they do him."

MUTT AND JEFF—Is This a Court, or a Lonely Hearts Agency, I Ask You

By BUD FISHER

REG'LAR FELLERS—A Hot Sport

By GENE BYRNES

