

'Try It On for Size, Sir?'

By United Press

Annabella, actress-wife of recently discharged Marine Lieutenant Tyrone Power, holds civilian coat for her husband as he lays aside uniform after three years of service. Power says he will return to Hollywood for a new film early next year.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

MANILA FLEET HAD CODE EQUIPMENT

WASHINGTON.—The Pearl Harbor investigating committee heard evidence today that the equipment for breaking the Jap code was provided the U. S. fleet in Manila but that the commander at Hawaii did not have the necessary facilities to break down the code.

EXECUTION OF YAMASHITA DELAYED

MANILA. — The supreme court granted a formal stay of execution to Japan's convicted war criminal, Yamashita. The sentence has been suspended until Yamashita's appeal for a civil trial can be considered.

TWO TRAIN WRECKS TAKE MANY LIVES

SOUTH CAROLINA.—Seven persons were known dead and 62 injured when two crack trains crashed on a siding because fog prevented the oncoming train from seeing the cars of the train they struck. Eight homebound soldiers were hospitalized and 22 others were under treatment after another collision of two Chicago trains.

U. N. O. WOULD SIT IN AMERICAN CITY

LONDON.—Evidence of a trend to take the importance of world affairs from central Europe was seen in a United Nations attempt to settle on a city in the United States for the seat of the U. N. O. London papers did not meet kindly with the move and pointed out that it showed to what extent the political center of gravity has shifted.

KONOYE'S PAPERS REVEAL PURPOSE

TOKYO.—Further light on Japan's intentions early in the war was shed from papers found in the possession of Prince Konoye Sunday a few hours before he was to surrender for trial as a war criminal. The papers disclosed that Japan's objective in joining the Axis was to present a stronger front composed of Germany, Russia and Italy against the Britain-American combine and thus settle with China more easily. Another reason given was that Japan hoped to prevent the European war from spreading further.

U. S. REFUSES TO TRANSPORT TROOPS

SHANGHAI. — The United States Army has denied a Chinese request that three more Chinese nationalist armies be transported to Manchuria on American vessels.

HERBERT WHEAT HEADS ROYAL ARCH CHAPTER

Herbert Wheat was elected and installed as excellent high priest of Dillon chapter No. 8, Royal Arch Masons, Saturday night, succeeding Matt Talin.

Other officers installed included Clifford L. Calvert, king; G. H. Bostwick, scribe; A. A. Schroeder, treasurer; J. C. Faller, secretary; Walter P. Scott, captain of the host; William H. Mitchell, principal sojourner; Frank R. Watkins royal arch captain; Wilber L. Squires, master of the third veil; I. E. Pruitt, master of second veil; J. H. Mikkelson, master of first veil.

Installing officers were John T. Orr, acting grand high priest, and Matt Kau, as grand marshal.

Members of the Beaverhead 4-H club made their first tour Friday to inspect each other's baby beef stock that are now being fed for showing at the annual summer show. Homes visited were those of Chester Downing, Gene Hansen, Regina and Jimmy Melton, Marine Benson and Danny

FORMER DILLON TAILOR DIES IN HELENA FRIDAY

Death claimed Louis P. Michelson, 76, retired Dillon tailor, Friday night at the Masonic home in Helena, where he had resided for the past two months. Last rites were conducted this afternoon at the Brundage chapel. Former Elder Leslie Smith of the L. D. S. church came up from his home at Logan, Utah, to conduct services and Dillon lodge No. 16, A. F. & A. M., had charge of graveside rites.

The deceased was born in Norway, Nov. 20, 1869. He came to America as a young man and arrived in Dillon in 1904. Since that time he engaged in the tailoring business in his own shop until failing health forced his retirement.

His wife and a son passed away sixteen years ago, both within a short time of each other. There are no other survivors.

Interment took place in Mountain View cemetery beside his late wife and son. Pallbearers were Charles Niblack, Lambert Elliel, T. Lee McCracken, T. H. Dubois, Fred Woodside and Herb Wheat.

AMBROSE HOME BURNS IN AXE'S CANYON

A house belonging to M. J. (Pat) Ambrose burned to the ground Friday in Axe's canyon near the talc mine, it was learned here. So swiftly did flames consume the house that none of the belongings were saved.

An overheated stove, it was believed, was the cause of the blaze.

Ott Gordon is a patient at the Budge clinic in Ogden, Utah, where he underwent an operation.

• THE WEATHER

Maximum, 29; Minimum, 2 Below
Today's Low, 3 Above

Stores Compete in Christmas Window Contest

This is Christmas Window week as proposed by the Dillon Chamber of Commerce, which is sponsoring a contest for the best Christmas window from Dec. 17-22. A number of merchants have prepared, or are preparing special Christmas windows for the competition.

The windows will be judged Wednesday afternoon. Judges are Mrs. B. W. Emerick, Mrs. W. J. Blerrum and Dr. W. H. Stephan

Judging will be of one window per firm. Three best windows will be selected on the basis of: 1...Promotion of the Christmas spirit. 2...Attractiveness. 3...Originality.

MOTHER OF DILLON WOMAN IS CALLED BY DEATH

Mrs. Etha Ulm, 81, of Forsyth, mother of Mrs. Archie C. Henneberry, passed away Saturday morning following an illness of many years. The remains have been brought to Dillon, where funeral services will be conducted in the Brundage chapel Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Ulm was born in Spencer, Iowa, in 1864 and came to Montana at the age of 17, residing near Great Falls. The town of Ulm was named for her husband's parents. In 1900 the family moved to Forsyth. Mr. Ulm passed away several years ago.

Funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. Lewis D. Smith of St. James Episcopal church. Interment will be in the Mountain View cemetery at the side of her late husband.

Only immediate survivors are a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Archie C. Henneberry of Dillon.

CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR CHILDREN SET NEXT SUNDAY

Dillon's first community Christmas party for children in many years will be held next Sunday, Dec. 23, on the depot lawn around the big Christmas tree, according to plans outlined by a civic committee Saturday night. The party is set to start at 5 o'clock in the evening and all children of the community are invited to attend.

It is hoped that Santa Claus can come to distribute the bags of treats which will be provided. Today the committee sent a wire to Santa Claus inviting him to the Dillon party. The wire is as follows:

Dillon, Montana.
Dec. 17, 1945.

Santa Claus,
North Pole, Arctic Circle.

To further celebrate and give thanks in this our first peacetime Christmas in several years, Dillon is giving a big Christmas party for all the boys and girls of this community. This is to be held at the community tree on the depot lawn at 5:00 p. m. December 23, 1945. Please answer Western Union if you can come.

Christmas Party Committee.

The program around the tree will start off with the singing of Christmas carols, led by Mrs. O. T. Vandegrift.

An attractive gift bag crammed with candy, nuts and fruit will be given away to the kiddies. Funds for the treats were obtained from money left over from the Halloween party and from donations made by business men of the city.

On the committee arranging for the Christmas party are W. W. Wetzel, C. J. Hovren, Rev. L. D. Smith, Elza Patrick, O. T. Vandegrift, P. J. Lovell, Dee Patton, Fay Erwin, D. W. Myers, W. J. Blerrum, Bill Lloyd and Dave Hier.

Nazi War Plant Dynamited

German war prisoners (left), directed by U. S. Army engineers, plant dynamite charge to destroy a Nazi war plant near Geislingen, Germany, that cost $2,500,000. Explosion rocks the earth (right) as underground war factory goes up in smoke.